REFUGEE

"What thoughts skim across your mind when you hear this word. What do you think of? Do you think of the homeless person in Europe and Asia? Do you think of the blood-spattered mother in Vietnam, or the stark starvation in Biafra?

What are we in the United Church of Christ and in other Protestant churches doing to help? In some respects we're doing quite a lot. Nearly a third of the money given thru the annual One Great Hour of Sharing appeal goes to feed, clothe and rehabilitate refugees. And that amount, more than $850,000 last year, seems a lot until you average it among the members of our denomination and then it shows a very small individual gift.

Through Church World Service and the other related agencies, we are prepared to help refugee people everywhere. The compassion of our Church is limited only by our generosity in our giving on One Hour of Sharing Sunday." Bring special offering on March 16th.
