Pastor: Charge to Teachers and Workers

You have been called to fill a very responsible position. You have inherited the task of teaching. Your presence here indicates a deep love for Christ and the scholars entrusted to you. God wants you to have teachable minds so that you may stand by the side of those with whom you work. Keep ever in mind that you are not merely to impart information, but to awaken souls and win them to Christ. Will you, therefore, discharge your duties faithfully? Will you be conscientious in your preparation of your work, regular in attendance at Church school, cooperate with your fellow-workers? If so, then answer "With the help of God, we will."

Teachers and Workers: With the help of God, we will.

Charge to the Pupils:

Pastor: Will you be faithful in your attendance, will you study your lessons, will you try to be attentive to the teachings of the Word, will you try your best to live up to the spirit of our Lord Christ?

Charge to Parents:

Pastor: The Sunday School, Church and Home are partners in the task of Christian education, but upon the home is laid the first responsibility, for the parents are the first teachers of religion. Will you, therefore, see to it that the scholars come to school on time, will you cooperate with heart and hand and prayer to lead your loved ones to Christ?

Parents and Sponsors: With the help of God, we will.

Unison Prayer: Our God and Father, we have made our commitments unto Thee. We pray that each promise made here may be written upon hearts and translated into action. Father, take us; use us, cleanse us, and fill us with Thy spirit; that it may be Thou who workest in our midst, accomplishing Thy holy will for us and for all men. In Jesus' Name. Amen.
