L: He casteth forth ice like morsels;

All: Who can stand before his cold?

L: He sendeth out his word and melteth them:

All: He causeth his wind to blow, and the

All: If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole body were hearing, where were the smelling?

P-: But now hath God set the members each one of them in the body, even as it pleased Him.

All: And if they were all one member, where were the body?

Give each and every one of us the courage to turn away from those who break the law and try to lead us to do wrong. Help us to obey the laws of our country, the laws of health, Thy laws as they are given in the Ten Commandments. Teach us to love God and men. For Jesus' sake we ask this. Amen.

Stolid and stunned, a brother to the ox?
Who loosened and let down this brutal jaw?
Whose was the hand that slanted back his brow?

To trace the stars and search the heavens for

To feel the passion of Eternity? *****
O masters, lords and rulers in all lands,
Is this the handiwork you give to God,
This monstrous thing distorted and soul quenched?

Rebuild in it the music and the dream;

Pastor: Be strong and of good courage, be not afraid, neither be dismayed; for the Lord thy God is with thee, whithersoever thou goest.

PRAYER: (In unison - Portions of Lincoln's Prayers)

Dear Heavenly Father, without the assistance of the Divine Being who attends everybody, I cannot succeed. With that assistance I cannot fail. Trusting in His care who can go with me, and remain with you, and be everywhere for good, let us confidently hope that all will be well. And having thus chosen our course to do the right, without guile and with pure purpose, let us renew our trust in God and go forward without fear and with manly hearts. Our Father who art in Heaven, etc. Amen.

All: A house divided against itself cannot stand.

HYMN—"The Day of Resurrection"

The day of resurrection!
Earth, tell it out abroad,
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God!
From death to life eternal,
From this world to the sky
Our Christ hath bro't us over
With hymns of victory.

Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection light;
And listening to His accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own "All hail!" and, hearing,
May raise the victor strain.

Now let the heav'ns be joyful,
Let earth her song begin;
Let the round world keep triumph,
And all that is therein;
Invisible and visible,
Their notes let all things blend,
For Christ the Lord is risen,
Our Joy that hath no end.

AN EASTER MESSAGE

Who Shall Roll Us Away the Stone?

MARK 16:3

There was a great, rounded, sealed and guarded stone in front of the grave of Jesus. This stone is a symbol of the many difficulties in ourselves as well as round about us that keep us from entering into fullest Christian life and into finest fellowship with Jesus. The women hastening to the grave had misgivings in their heart. These and the stone were removed through the resurrection of Jesus. The new life given us through Jesus can give us new courage, power and greater hope amidst the many troubles of life.

"We are all buried deep. Arise, Arise,
In us, O Living Form, out of this hate,
This greed, this night, this starving in the stone."
"Roll back the self-shut boulders of our fate,
That we may know our power and be wise
In the Light forever about us truly known."
