

August 18, 1925.

The weekly meeting of the "Evergreen" was called to order by our President at 7.30 p.m. The song sheets were given out and after we had sung a few hymns we repeated the Lord's prayer. The Treasurer then gave report as follows-- Dues $1.02 and Benevolence $.78. A motion was made and carried that we by Mrs. Frank a basket from the benevolence. Anna Mack was appointed to take charge of this. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved as read. The Treasurer then gave the Secretary $.10 for reinforcements.

Old Business-- Lillian Poulsen and Bertha Norden have attended to the buying of the prizes for the games at Druid Hill Park. The same committee was inted to buy the things necessary to hold the specified games. Instead of having the aforesaid games for the men and ladies we are going to have the "Lotte" game.

As neither Lawrence Young or the friend of Cornelia Boone will be able to take us to the boat Miss Bertha going to ask Creamer's to take our luggages, paying him the $.05 extra from the Shady Side money. The extra charge for the "Evergreen" pins ($.10) was collected.

The next club meeting will be on September 8, 1925. Yet each girl is requested to bring in on that evening the regular three weeks dues ($1.15). The following committee was appointed by the chair as an entertainment committee--

Anna Mack	Lillian Yeager
Anna Givvines	Alvina Boehm

It was suggested that each girl bring $.05 a week extra each week for a few years so that by that time we will be able to have rings. Another plan of selling candies was suggested.

It has been decided that this winter we work more for others who are not as fortunate as we.

The Shady Side money was collected and all the girls who are going have paid the full amount.

A motion was made and carried that the meeting be adjourned.

These in the play the "Shew Actress" rehearsed.

Tune: Mr. Gallagher, Mr. Shean

O, Mr. Gallagher, O, Mr. Gallagher,
What's the "Evergreen" so all fussed up about?
Why the girls all wear a smile,
And they're hustling all the while,
They must be getting ready to go somewhere.

O, Mr. Shean, O, Mr. Shean, Haven't you heard what they're expecting on the scene?

Why, they're going to Shady Side,
Where they're going to abide,
What for always, Mr. Gallagher?
No, for one week, Mr. Shean.

Tune: To-morrow, To-morrow.

We're going, we're going To dear old Shady Side
We're working, we're working
Our efforts, we won't hide

Lawdy, O what a great delight
To get a wonderful sight

Of the club girls sitting around the table
Eating as much as they are able,

We know, that we'll have the best time of our lives

Have swimming, go launch riding, too
Somehow we just can't wait for our vacation time

Take the "Emma Giles" right down the line
And then toot-toot

We'll be enroute
To Shady Side.

Hail Shady Side, Hail
Hail Shady Side, Hail
You're the best of all the rest
Our praises never fail, oh hail.

Carry me back to that spot on West River
There's where the moon and the camp fires brightly glow
There's where the water ripples soft in the moonlight
There's where the camp girls always want to go.
There's where the rainbow keeps guard o'er the water
There's where we meet and where our friendships grow
No place on earth do I love more sincerely
Than dear Shady Side, there's where I want to go.

In the evening by the moonlight
You can hear those camp girls singing
In the evening by the moonlight
Shady Side, you're praises ringing
We have loved you while we've been here
And we'll miss you when we leave here
So we'll sing in the evening by the moonlight.

O Shady Side is a dandy place
O Shady Side is a dandy place
O Shady Side is a dandy place
It burns your hands and tans your face
It's a corking place right here.

It's a corking place right here
It's a corking place right here
O we came to Shady Side to have a good time
And the time we're having is certainly fine
It's a corking place right here.

O Fanny is a dandy cook
O Fanny is a dandy cook
O Fanny is a dandy cook
She never had to use a book
It's a corking place right here.

Whether the weather be fine
Or whether the weather be not
Whether the weather be cold
Or whether the weather be hot
We'll weather the weather
Whatever the weather
Whether we like it or not!

On that train from Bangour
On that pullman train
After three weeks fishing
Off the coast of Maine
Whiskers were extensive
Mustache did look well
See that Princeton student
Now doesn't he look swell?

Empty seat behind him
No one at his side
Into an eastern village
That pullman train arrived
Entered engaged couple
Took the hindmost seat
Entered pretty maiden
Bewitching and petite.

Blushingly, she faltered,
"Is this seat engaged,"
Witnessed by the couple
Comfortably arranged
Student sympathetic
Sees her ticket thru
Thinks of the coming tunnel
And knows just what he'll do.

On they ride in silence
While the cinders fly
Till that classic student
Gets one in his eye
Maiden sympathetic
Turns herself about
O mister, may I help you
And try to get it out?

He hears her soft voice calling
He feels her gentle touch
O mister, did I hurt you,
So very, very much?
Crash, bang, slam,
Into that tunnel ran,
Into that glorious tunnel
Sped that pullman train.

xxxxxxx haven't we got fun
xxxxxxx you all know how its done
xxxxxxx haven't we got fun
xxxxxxx you all know how its done.

Out into the daylight
Sped that pullman train
Miaden's hair was ruffled
Just a tiny grain
Student's hair was ruffled
Tossed about as well
Now doesn't that hairpin
In his mustache look swell?

Hick, hick, hickory limb,
"Ach mein," said Lena
"You waltz mit your peg,
I tink just as good as you did mit your leg,"
When Heiny waltzes round on his hickory limb
Hick, hick, hickory limb,
The crowds all get sore
He makes nicks in der floor
Mit his hick, hick, hickory limb.

We all all from Baltimore.
And we all like ti well.
And those who don't like Baltimore
Well they can go to Ham and eggs for breakfast
Ham and eggs for lunch
Ham and eggs for dinner
Is ham and eggs too much.

Six little mice sat down to spin
Pussy came by and she peeped in What are you at my little men
Making good coats for gentlemen.
May I come in and bite off your thread,
O no, Miss Pussy, you'll bite off our heads
O no, I won't, I'll help you spin,
That may be so, but you can't come in.

When we unload at Shady Side
We know what we will do
We'll just shake hands with everyone
And say, "how-do-you-do?"

Sing, sisters, sing,
Sing, sisters, sing,
Let your voices ring,
Let them ring, ring, ring.

When we get to the table
We know what we will do
We'll gobble up those good old eats
As fast as we can chew, chew, chew, chew.

When we go to our beds tonight
We know what we will think
We'll hope the bugs and skeeters
Will not crawl thru the chink, chink, chink, chink.

O me, o my We'll get there by and by
If anybody loves the "Evergreen"
Its, I, I, I, I, I.

O my, o me
Our hearts are full of glee
If anybody loves the "Evergreen"
Its we, we, we, we, we.

"Evergreen" will shine tonight
"Evergreen" will shine
(repeat 3 times)
When the sun goes down
And the moon comes up
"Evergreen" will shine.

Tune: "Juanita"
When in the evening, work is oer
And tasks are done
At our club we gather
Playtime is begun.
Then to thee "Evergreen"
Where our friendships live anew
We e're turn our footsteps
For we love thee true.

Cho:
"Evergreen, Evergreen
Friends we'll be thru life's long day
"Evergreen, Evergreen
For ere and aye.

In the blue ridge mountains of Virginia
Stood a cow on a railroad track.
'Twas a very good cow with eyes so fine
But you can't expect a cow to read a railroad sign
So she stood in the middle of the track
And the train hit her right in the back
Now her horns are in the mountains of Virginia
And her tails on the lonesome spine.

Nobody ever cultivated me
Ha ha, I'm wild
I just grewed up as you see
Ever since I was a child
I am a little prairie flower
Growing wilder every hour
For nobody ever cultivated me
Ha ha, I'm wild.

"Evergreen" has cultivated me
Ha ha, I'm tame
I've been learning as you see
Ever since I came
I was a little prairie flower
Growing wilder every hour
But "Evergreen" has cultivated me
Ha ha, I'm tame.

He was just a long, lean country gink
From way down south where the hop toads blink
Six feet two in his stocking feet
And kept getting thinner the more he eat.
Just as brave as he was thin
When the war broke out he jumpt right in Unhitched the plow, took the mule away
And the old folks heard him say:

Good-bye Maw, good-bye Paw,
Good-bye mule with your old hee-haw
I may not know what the war's about
But you bet, by gosh, I'll soon find out
O my sweetheart don't you fear
I'll bring you back a king for a souvenir
I'll git you a turk and a kaiser too
That's about all one feller can do.

✓ Tune - End of a Perfect Day

'Tis the hour when we gather as one big clan
And the sun sinks low in the west
And the night creeps down on the hillside gray
And we sing songs we love the best
Our association receives our praise
For gifts greater than we dream
And we learn right here of a greater love
'Tis the spirit of "Evergreen." Innerwhed

Mary had a little cat
It swallowed a ball of yarn
And when the cat had kittens
They all had sweaters on!

My mama told me
That her would buy me
A little dolly
If I be good.
So don't you tell her
I got a feller
Or her won't buy me
That little dolly.
She calls me honey,
She calls me dear,
And now my birthday
Will soon be here.
I want that dolly
I do, I do,
And that dear feller
I want him too.

I have a dear old father
For whom I daily pray
He has such great long whiskers
There always in the way.
We gather round the table
To form our family group
'Tis then that father's whiskers
Are always in the soup
There always in the way
The cows eat them for hay
And mother chews them in her sleep
And thinks she's eating shredded wheat
There always in the way.
There always in the way, There always in the Way.
They hide the dirt on father's shirt
There always in the way.

He hugged her and he kissed her
In the moonlight
And the moon shone bright as day
He hugged her and he kissed her
In the moonlight
And the moon gave them away.
Dog gone that moon!

He hugged her and he kissed her
On the park bench
And the moon shone bright as day
He hugged her and he kissed her
On the park bench
And the park bench gave away.
Dog gone that bench!

He hugged her and he kissed her
On the doorstep
And the moon shone bright as day
He hugged her and he kissed her
On the doorstep
And Dad's foot came that way.
Dog gone Dad's foot!

// Tell me the tales that to me were so dear
Long, long ago, long, long ago.
Sing me the songs I delighted to hear
Long, long ago, long, long ago.

Now you are come, all my grief is removed Let me forget that so long you have roved
Let me believe that you love as you loved
Long, long ago, long ago.

Yawning in the morning
When the breakfast bell we hear
Yawning in the morning
When our sleep is very dear,
And when we're fully dressed
And we think we look our best
Still we go on yawning in the morning.

As I was walking down the street
 This billboard met my eye
 The advertisements posted there would make you laugh and cry
 The rain had come the night before
 And washed it half away
 The other half remaining there
 Would make this billboard say:

Come smoke your coca-cola
 Drink cascar cigarettes
 See Lillian Russell wrestle
 With a box of oysterettes
 Pork and beans will meet tonight
 For a finish fight
 Ivory soap will lecture
 On Sepolia tonight.
 Bay rum is good for horses
 We have the best in town
 Cascarettes are good for measles
 If you pay five dollars down
 Teeth extracted without cost
 Price a half a dime
 Old clothes will be on sale tonight
 At quarter after nine.
 TNT and paris green is good to quiet the nerves
 If you want to use tar soap tonight
 Just add a little water and syrup.

Let us sing a song with our voices strong
Of our love for the "Evergreen"
We give a cheer from year to year
For we love the "Evergreen"

"Evergreen, Evergreen"
Its a name we all hold dear,
It stands for service, health and strength
Oh here's to the "Evergreen."

I am happy today and the sun shines bright
The clouds have been rolled away
For the Savior said, "Whosoever will,
May come to Him to stay."

Whosoever, surely meaneth me
Surely meaneth me
Surely meaneth me
Whosoever, surely meaneth me
Whosoever meaneth me.

O we're the girls of the "Evergreen"
And we know how to sing
And if we haven't got a song
We'll sing most anything.
We don't care what it's about
Or if it doesn't rhyme
We'll sing it for you any place
We'll sing it any time.

O come join us
Boost us to a man
Help us, back us,
Be an "Evergreen" fan
Here's where we come to work and play
And cheer our "Evergreen"
And if you'll be one of us
You too will love "Evergreen."

Two little children whose names I don't know
Were lost in the woods one bright summer's day
Were lost in the woods so some people say.

And when it was night, so sad was their plight
The sun went down and the moon gave no light
They sobbed and they sobbed
And they bitterly cried
Poor babes in the woods, they lay down and died.

And when they were dead, the robin so red
Brought strawberry leaves, and over them spread
And all the night long, he sang them this song:
"Poor babes in the woods, poor babes in the woods."

Bought two tickets and didn't go in.

So come girls while we are here
Lets be firm friends and true
Lets have a gay time, a happy play time
For we all love to play with you.

September 8, 1925

The weekly meeting of the "Evergreen" was called to order by the President at 7.30 p.m. After we had repeated the Lord's Prayer the Treasurer gave her report as follows-- dues--$1.92 and benevolence $.78. Different hymns were sung after which the minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

Old business-- The appointed entertainment committee failed to complete the necessary arrangements so that they were unable to take charge of the pleasure end of the meeting. Miss Bertha then suggested that they give the stunt and the refreshments on the hike which the club is to take on Saturday, September 19, 1925. We are going to hike to Heyman's Shore where we will be served with sausage, rolls, pickles, buns, and coffee for the small sum of $.10. What could be more desirable than a good walk with such wonderful eats at the end of the road. Therefore all the girls are urged to come out for a good time. Since the weather is so warm there will be no meeting on the fifteenth of September but all those who care to can bowl on that evening in a group. There will be no regular meeting until we are notified by Miss Bertha.

Anna Mack then reported that she will give Mrs. Frank a basket as soon as she can. Those girls who still owed $.10 extra for their pins turned the above amount over to Miss Bertha.

Since there was no further business a motion was made and passed that the meeting be adjourned. From thence we went to a carnival held in the vicinity of Miss Bertha's home.

Respectfully Submitted,

Margaret B. Mueller.

A HIKE TO HEYMAN'S SHORE

Saturday, having arrive at last, was a beautiful, clear day. This was the day on which we were to take a hike. All of the girls having arrived early we started up to Ida Heyman's house. Here we stopped long enough to place our bundles on the truck and talk a little to three girls who had decided to go down in the truck.

We then walked a little farther to board the "Toonerville Trolley of Highlandtown". Our large group quite filled that little can. We transferred at Fifteenth Street for the Middle River car and rode until we came to "Josenhans". Here we got off and started to walk. Having come to a cornfield we started to take a picture. We were all trying to pose when we heard shouts, discovering them to come from the farmer owning the field. Why should we worry though? We quickly snapped the picture and were on our way.

Walking briskly along the road, two or three of the girls asked "a lift" of a driver of a little coupe. The sole occupants of the car, a Doctor and a woman from Pennsylvania, had a heart and gave us a lift.

Great was the surprise of the people of the store at the crossroads where we stopped to unload for our whole group was piled on this small machine. We walked the rest of the way. As soon as we arrived at the shore we undressed and after rowing a bit went swimming. We swam and played in the water a while then rowed back, hungrier than-----well hungry as any of us have ever been. After dressing we had supper. Yum! Yum! Dogs, buns, pickles, potato salad and coffee-some of us even had a sip of home brew. We sure did eat. After that we built a fire and sang around it. We also toasted marshmallows and told stories. Then our supper being quite settled we took to dancing and jumping around and so forth. Well, of course we all tired out toward the end of the evening so we lounged around in the hammocks and swings gabbin' as usual.

We didn't walk back to Josenhans for we couldn't. Instead we all piled in Mr. Baker's little jittney bus and for the small sum of $.10 rode to the car line amid much shouting and laughter.

We had a very jolly time going home on the cars but enjoyed much better the refreshing sleep after we had arrived home safe once again.

October 20, 1925

The weekly meeting of the "Evergreen" was called to order by President Mary Mueller at 7.45 p.m. After the singing of the club hymn we were lead in prayer by Miss Bertha Norden. Upon repeating our code and purpose it was found that quite a few of the members had neglected to memorize them. Therefore our President requested that each girl the code before the next meeting. The Treasurer then gave her report as follows--Dues--$58.20, BEnevolence--$.20. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Business-- $20.00 was given to the Deaconess Association. This amount was taken from the $100.00 which was set aside as the Shady Side fund. Since only $80.00 was used for vacation the remaining sum was given over to this good work.

As we have been asked to take the cake stand again at the Oyster Supper Miss Bertha thought it best to comply with their wishes.

Three committees were appointed to take charge on the specified nights.

Each of the above girls is to bring at least three cakes on the designated nights.

If anyone is unable to bake she is to give the money to the group leader, who in turn will get someone to bake a cake for the money.

A motion was made and carried that we have Self Denial night on the last Tuesday of every month. This money is to be used for Mrs. Frank or any others who are in need. To remind the girls of this the Treasurer is to announce on the third Tuesday of the month that the following Tuesday is to be Self Denial Week.

A motion was made and carried that we make bean bags for the Christmas club, through a suggestion from Mr. Jones, a friend of the "Evergreen". Lillian Poulsen was put in charge of the materials for the bags. She is to buy a sufficient amount of bed ticking and enough corn to fill the bags. The money for this is to be taken from the treasury.

Beatrice Bectold is to write on the hike taken to Heyman's Shore.

A motion was made and passed that we buy Mrs. Kellner one-half (1/2) ton of coal. A dress is also to be bought for Sadie Kellner. The money for the coal is to be taken from the treasury, but the dress is to be bought with the self denial money.

Clara Bauresfeld and Lillian Yeager were appointed by the chair to go to see the ones in need. If coal is not necessary they are to find out what would be appreciated by the family.

It was suggested that we give a Halloween party on Monday, November 2, 1925. After some discussion it was decided that the girls be allowed to masquerade as they see fit.

The girls of the "Evergreen" club have been invited to attend the Hallowe'en party Tuesday, November 3, 1925 to be given by the Boy Scouts.

Miss Helen Finger then gave us a talk on the life at "Dunkirk". Since the expense is so great for us all to go we are going to try to send a representative so that at least one of the group may see the wonderful sights and be able to bring to us the pictures in words.

Hallowe'en for "Evergreens"

-1-

When goblins lurked about the earth
And ghosts to corn-fields flew,
And all the world was filled with mirth,
And pumpkins larger grew,

-2-

We needles of the "Evergreen"
Although 'twas not our holiday,
Thought how to spend our Hallowe'en,
A night for laughter, rich and gay.

-3-

And so we scratched our noble beans
Until a plan was found,
"A party", every member screamed,
"With apples big and round".

-4-

And icecream blocks with tiny cakes
And candy will be served,
Until we get the stomach ache,
And get on mother's nerves.

-5-

November, second, dawned so fair
Our hearts sang more and more,
And all the needles were prepared
To have a time a-galore.

-6-

Alas! Alack! at six o'clock
The rain began to fall,
The naughty thing would not stop
And the girls began to bawl.

-7-

Their curls began to dwindle
To straight and stringy locks,
And their homes began to ring and tingle
With phrases 'bout their horrid luck.

However just at eight p.m.
With mothers and fond friends
Large Leimbach's Hall, found them all Talking, dancing without end.

On those who did not care to dance
A few small tricks were played
But some could tell at just a glance
What sort of fun was t'be arrayed.

But when we played the "Magic Book"
The Scouts were to be tamed,
You only had to take one look
To see the result of the game.

The music was of course the best,
The dancers sure did step-it
We even had a "Charleston" Contest
And believe me they did pep-it.

And then we were supplied with eats
Boy! we did go south
For in store for us was a treat
That melted in your mouth.

Then we danced and sang and jigged
Until the clock said midnight
And in our coats and bonnets rigged
To our homes we took our flight.

Thus ended our great party
We held on Hallowe'en
And when we thus departed
We sang, "Three cheers for "Evergreen".

THE BOYSCOUT'S HALLOWEEN PARTY

On Tuesday November 3, about eighteen of us needles gathered at Miss Bertha's for a night of fun. Well to our surprise Bill was there with a truck and took us out to the boy scout's party and believe me it was some party. On our way out we went four blocks out of the way and had to turn around and go the other way. We saw a church and thought that was it and we all yelled but was fooled because it was the next corner. We were greeted by some of the boys. Bertha thought she had a night off but Mr. Jones called on her for some game. So there she stood drawing a mystic circle and holding the mystic book. We also played faith, hope and charity and you should have seen some of the looks on their faces. You would have cracked your side laughing. Prizes were given out to the ones who got the most applause. Beatrice our charleston dancer received one of the prizes. Then all of a sudden someone said eats, but you couldn't go to the table unless you had a partner. So the the girls each got a partner and went to the table. Talk about eats, that is one good thing they had. We ate and talked, I guess you know why we talked so much, we could eat more. After eating till we couldn't eat no more, we all stood together like sardines and had our picture taken. It was getting late and the party started to get rough, they wanted to play kissing games and you know we needles don't play games like that. After getting our coats on we all got in the truck and were bound for Highlandtown and Canton. Singing so loud that we didn't mind how cold it was. When the truck stopped at Bertha's we all thanked Bill and called it the end of a perfect night.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved as correct ed.

Business-- Beatrice Bectold handed in her essay on the hike to Heyman's Shore, which was read aloud by Miss Bertha. Lillian Poulsen and Margaret Mueller were told to write their compositions as soon as possible. Mrs. Kellner was very much pleased with the coal and thanked the club for it. Those girls who want their "Evergreen" pins are to bring their money ($1.35) as soon as they can for Miss Bertha has only two pins left.

Since the treasury has no surplus money Miss Bertha thought it would be nice if each girl would bring one article to put in the Thanksgiving baskets. As everyone thought this to be a wise plan each girl was given a specific grocery to bring to 606 S. Clinton Street on Wednesday, November 25, 1925. Here we are to fill two baskets, one for Mrs. Frank, the other for Mrs. Kellher.

Clara Bauresfeld and Lillian Yeager are to take the basket to Mrs. ~~Frank~~ Kellner.

Miss Bertha is to see Mrs. Frank.

As the election of officers is soon to be held Miss Bertha said it would be better to have a nominating committee instead of having nominations in order during the regular business meeting.

Accordingly the following girls were chosen for the committee--

Alverta Rettman
Esther Mack

Ruth Buechlar
Lillian Poulsen.

This committee is to hold its meeting on Sunday, Nov. 22, 1925.

The election of officers will be held Tuesday, December 8, 1925.

It has been suggested that the girls who had planned an entertainment for the club should make final preparations and give the play at some future time. As there was some candy left there is to be no candy ordered for next week. As there was no further business Sister Lena gave us a talk about her work. After this we were served with ice cream and cakes which was purchased by Miss Bertha.

OUR HIKE TO GUN POWDER RIVER

On December 6, 1925, thirteen of the "Evergreens" met up Miss Bertha Norden's to go on a hike. Believe me, when it comes to hiking or having a good time we're right there. We boarded the cars and rode until we reached Carney, then we began our hike. While hiking along we were singing all our club songs and others. At last, we reached our destination, which was Gun Powder River.

We found a large stone near the water and we thought this would be a very fine place to make a campfire. Some of the girls set down and took a rest, while the others gathered up wood to make a campfire. "Yum, Yum, I sure am hungry after that hike", shouted one. "You are not the only one, so are we", cried the others. Rolls, dogs, pickles and toasted marshmallows seemed to be our favorite eats when on a hike. No sooner than the campfire was made every girl grabbed a dog and put it on the end of a stick over the fire to roast. Talk about fun, some burnt their dogs, but nevertheless they ate them. Gosh! don't you wish you had one now Girls. Then we started with the pickles, and nibbled away on them, until they were all gone. After finishing the rolls, pickles, and dogs we toasted the marshmallows. We also had crackers and jelly which we ate last. Now since all our eats are gone lets climb the hills and take a walk through the woods. Not me shouted one of the girls I'm thirsty lets go up the road and see if we can get a drink somewhere. There were about six of the girls that went up the road to get a drink, while the others took a walk through the woods. Let us see if we can discover a spring in the woods, said Bertha.

We all laughed, but nevertheless we looked around We saw many streams of water that we thought might lead to a spring but was apparently from some other source. One of the girls discovered a small yellow thing that looked like an Alligator, it was the funniest looking thing. We tried to catch the small animal to put it into a bottle, but this we

The weekly meeting of the "Evergreen" was called to order on the above date at 7.30 p.m. by our president, Margaret Mueller. After singing several hymns our president lead us in prayer. The treasurer then gave her report as follows: Dues $23.32, Benevolence $3.57. The minutes of the previous meeting were then read and approved without correction. Business: Lillian Poulsen handed in her composition on the Boy Scouts' Party which was read aloud by Mary Mueller. Lillian Yaeger was appointed to write about the hike to the Gunpowder. Miss Bertha again urged the girls to attend the entertainment to be given by the Glee Club of the Maryland Workshop for the Blind. As every member is expected to attend this entertainment there will be no meeting next week. The eats on the hike of Sunday, December 6, were enjoyed by everyone therefore, the eats committee was dismissed with thanks. Miss Bertha then asked the girls if they wanted to have a Christmas Party on Dec. 22. Nothing could be decided upon so a committee was appointed to discuss it after the meeting. The committee was as follows: Mary Mueller, Lill Poulsen, Anna Mack, Alverta Rettman, and Ruth Buechler. Miss Bertha asked the girls to make bags to be filled for the inmates of Bay View Hospital. The subject of Bible Study was then brought up but was put off for later discussion. Miss Bertha then asked the girls if they would like to have a gym class and have a regular gym teacher to give us lessons. This also was put off until after Christmas. As there was no further business a motion was made and second that the meeting be adjourned. The committee then discussed the party while the other members of the club played games.
