PASTOR'S REPORT

"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed..." Matthew 13:31

Nine years ago, I preached on this passage from Matthew as part of my ordination exam. Little did I know then that God was speaking to me. As a laborer in the vineyard of God, the promise of scripture is that the kingdom comes slow but sure. I think we all understand the slow part, but it is the sure part that brings a test of faith. As I look back on 2009 I am looking for the sure places where the kingdom of heaven grew among us. And as I look back, I also see the truth found in the scripture that the kingdom of heaven grows even when we are not aware.

One of the significant happenings in 2009 was my sabbatical. The word sabbatical comes from the word Sabbath which means a time of rest. Perhaps for this reason a sabbatical is a place of kingdom growth that goes unnoticed. Yet since September I see sprouts coming forth from this time of rest.

My focus during sabbatical was to study the Emerging Church. At its essence the Emerging Church is young people who are searching for a Christian community that is about the mission of God and not the mission of the church. These young people are more concerned about feeding the hungry than debating about what it means to be a faithful Christian.

This emerging movement is an indictment against the established church which too often gets bogged down in minutia while missing what is most important. As a church perhaps the greatest lesson we can learn from my sabbatical time is to understand anew that our purpose for gathering is to be about the work of God, and not about the propagation of ourselves.

The work of the visioning groups over the last two years has made it obvious to us the mission of God to which we are being called. And from this slow but steady work there are now ministry groups meeting on a regular basis. These three small groups are focused on the worship life of the church, the mission life of the church, and on youth and young adult ministry.

Church growth literature speaks to the importance of small groups within a church. Small groups provide people with a sense of connection while also providing an avenue for people to be involved in ministry. Currently six people make up the ministry groups, and while the number is small, they are all excited by what they are doing. I am working at get more people involved and even so, I am reminded of the scripture above. The kingdom of heaven starts out small, like a mustard seed.

Another quest of the Emerging Church is for deeply spiritual worship experiences. Unlike the modern contemporary church, the Emerging Church values the use of ancient Christian spiritual practices in worship. It was this that inspired the Advent worship services, "In the Silence." While there were no visitors to the services, these times of silence were a taste of experiential worship and some who attended deeply appreciated it.

These services also contained some of the insights learned at the Enliven Worship for the Small Church seminars which Robert Gundlach and I attended at Lancaster Theological Seminary from the end of 2008 through the spring of 2009.

The worship life ministry group will be involved in designing more worship experiences of this kind over 2010. The purpose is not to become an emerging congregation, but rather to engage a wider population of people through a diversity of worship experiences.

Sabbatical also provided me with the opportunity to go with our youth to TN. I have been involved in a lot of different retreats and mission projects, but that week in TN with the youth was one of the best spiritual experiences I have had. Exposing our youth to this kind of experience will help them to always know that they can find a deep and meaningful connection with God through the church. It is these kinds of experiences that plant mustard seeds of faith.

When working with youth it might take decades to see the seeds sprout, but one area of growth that came this year was seen at our youth sleepover. In 2008 we had our first sleepover at the church and ten youth participated. In 2009 we had eighteen youth for the sleepover. A week after the sleepover we had youth who wanted to come to church but didn't have a ride. This tells me that we aren't prepared for the kind of kingdom growth that we have been praying for; we aren't prepared for the kind of kingdom growth for which Jesus warns us to be prepared.

Cathy Fifield and I are the main organizers for the youth program. Diane Pachilis, Carl Price and Monica Collins are also involved. Additional volunteers are needed to help manage the kingdom growth that is truly happening.

Finally, the end of 2009 brought the death of my mother. I was able to spend a week with her over the summer while on sabbatical. It was a gift to have the luxury of time to process my own emotional rollercoaster knowing that I didn't have to be emotionally available to the people of the congregation. I, and my family, am grateful for all of your support and prayers during my mother's sickness and death. On more than one occasion my mother told me that I had a good church, and she was right. And it is knowing that she was right that I look forward to the continued, slow but sure kingdom growth with you.

In Christ's love,
Rev. Cathy

SPECIAL NOTE:

This list of committees is only tentative and far from being complete. The Church Council is in the process of reviewing and revising the duties of all committees as spelled out in the Constitution and By-Laws. Some of these committees may be altered or eliminated, and new committees may be added so as to better serve the needs of our Church and Congregation. It is the thought of the Church Council that each committee will have one Council Member to coordinate and solicit committee members from the Congregation. When you are approached concerning serving on one of these committees, it is our hope that you will give this request your sincerest consideration and respond in a positive manner to the opportunity to serve your Church. If you would prefer a specific committee to work on, please let your desires be known to the Office, Rev. Cathy or any Council Member. The only way your Church Council can function as it should and in an efficient manner is with your help, support, and cooperation.

Christian Education Committee Annual Report 2009

It is with many thanks that we begin this New Year and be able to look back at a year with many successful ventures by the Church School and the Youth Group. We are blessed to have dedicated people working with the youth of our church. In the Church School there are several teachers that have, with commitment and skill, guided our young people. In the Nursery/Kindergarten Class our teacher is Carol Borkman who has lovingly worked with the younger children (toddlers to 5 year olds) for many years, yet always with a fresh, vibrant approach. There are currently 3 children who attend this class. The Multi-Age class (6-10) is guided by three teachers who combine their talents. This includes Diane Borkman, Patricia Jenkins, and JoAnn Johnson. They rotate their Sundays and support each other each week. There are 9 children in this department. The older youth of our Church School have the enthusiastic and devoted leadership of Cathy Fifield. These 10 youth (sometimes more, sometimes less) take part in many facets of the church life. We are actively looking for someone to teach our older youth (14-18). Since we are fortunate to have several students of this age who are active participants in our church, we are seeking someone to accept leadership of this group.

Among the church functions that have the support and cooperation of the Church School are the Picnic in September, Tinsel Sunday in December, and the Pancake Breakfast in February. The picnic is always an enthusiastic gathering of children and adults participating in lunch, games, and fellowship. Most years we have been blessed with excellent weather as well. In December, the Church School presents a program for the Church congregation and the teachers provide crafts in the afternoon for the youth. This has for many years been something that the congregation has whole-heartedly embraced. In February, the committee has started a new tradition. On the Sunday before Lent begins, we have a Pancake Breakfast in the Fellowship Hall below the Church where the youth, with the support of their leaders and the congregation, have a breakfast between the two services. This has been well-received by the congregation.

We have a lively, enthusiastic Youth Group under the direction of Rev. Cathy and Cathy Fifield. With their leadership, the youth have been able to give much to others and enjoy themselves with the many activities in which they have participated. This past summer they traveled to Tennessee for a work trip. In December they made and sold cookies as a fundraiser. With the support of the congregation, they have been able to participate in many endeavors.

The Youth Group is actively seeking an adult who would like to assist Rev. Cathy and Cathy (gets confusing doesn't it!). If you would enjoy working with some great young people who have engaged in many ventures this past year, (and look forward to more in the coming year), please let one of the Cathy's know this or call the church office.

It is with sadness that we have to report that Ed Myers, a loving member of the Church School who for many years was the treasurer and worked in the church school office, has passed away. While he spent some of his time in the office, he really enjoyed spending time with the youth of the church school and for many years was active with the Boy Scouts at our church. He will be missed.

To reiterate, if you are an adult who is looking for a stimulating experience working with youth, please consider working with our older youth in the church school and/or becoming a leader of our Youth Group.

God Bless,

Carol Rowell and the Christian Education Committee

LADIES' ORGANIZATION, U.E.C.

The Ladies' Organization has 17 enrolled members. Most meetings have 12 to 15 members attending. During the year we have two Bus Trips to Faith UCC in Frederick, MD for their Oyster, Ham and Turkey Luncheon. We attended Toby and Timonium Dinner Theatres. These two outings we not attended by many of our members so we included ladies from the group that helps fill our bus for Frederick. Our charity donation from Miss Piggy which we collect at each meeting ($100.50) was sent to an Organization called "SMILE TRAIN" for children needing help because of face complications. Our monthly meetings include brown bag lunches, and also St. Patrick's Day Luncheon and a Turkey Luncheon. We also try to include during the year a Pizza/Salad and Barbeque or Chicken Luncheon. Our Annual Strawberry Festival gave us a profit of $511.66. Our Ladies' Organization donated $1,000.00 to the Church. Other donations included Hymnals, Memorials, and the Lily and Poinsettia Fund, for a total of $295.00.

Church Choir

The Choir meets every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. We are in need of choir members. If you would like to sing with the choir (or sing a solo or duet with someone), please contact Rob Gundlach. Anyone over the age of 11 is welcome to join.

We are looking forward to having a Yesterday and Today show in the spring of the year on Sunday, May 23rd right after church. This will be a dinner and a show. More information will follow.
