Pastor: As we come unto God in the sense of imperfection, of needing His strength and His forgiveness, He does truly forgive our sins and grant us His forgiveness. Let us then make unto Him our confession.
People: Have mercy upon us, O God, according to thy loving kindness. According to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out our transgressions. Wash us thoroughly from our iniquities, and cleanse us from our sin. Against thee have we sinned and done evil in thy sight. Create in us clean hearts, O God, and renew a right spirit within us, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Pastor: We are not worthy of the love of God nor of His mercy and forgiveness. Yet He would love us and grant us His absolution from sins, if we are sorry for these sins. May we therefore, humbly, and in cognizance of our need for cleansing, now come in faith and make our confession.

We know that though we may try very hard, still we are not without sin, and so, for those sins we have unwillingly committed as for those purposely done, we ask your pardon and cleansing. THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: We are not worthy of the love of God nor of His mercy and forgiveness. Yet He would love us and grant us His absolution from sins, if we are sorry for these sins. May we therefore, humble, and in cognizance of our need for cleansing, now come in faith and make our confession.

People: Dear God, we are your children come home this morning unto yourself. We know that though we may try very hard, still we are not without sin, and so, for those sins we have unwillingly committed as for those purposely done, we ask your pardon and cleansing. Grant us new grace and new strength in your presence, we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

THE KYRIE ELEISON, #518 in Hymnal

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us,

People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us,

People sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us,

People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: Because of God's utter goodness and therefore His unwillingness to hold Him self apart from any who seek Him, I inform you that, for as many of you who are sincere, God does forgive your sins, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

GETHSEMANE

A quiet, peaceful spot, where one could go to get away from it all.

But Christ went to Gethsemane to face it all—the weakness of His disciples,
the temptation to take the easy way out,
the difficult submission to God's plans,
the awful betrayal by Judas,
and the brutal manhandling of the mob.
A place of peace and quiet?
A foretaste of even worse to come.

THE COURTYARD

It should have been a place of love and truth, this palace of the High Priest, but was instead a house of hate and lies—false accusations, bribed witnesses, illegal proceedings, bitter scorn.
Jesus came to bring life, but they condemned Him as deserving death. And Peter, who had sworn to be true, even “if I must die,” now swears, “I do not know Him!”
What a mockery of love and truth
the palace courtyard witnessed that night.

HEROD'S PALACE

Herod Antipas,
tetrarch of Galilee,
was outwardly religious,
but inwardly a self-serving seeker after worldly power.
The same Herod, who had succumbed to the seductive wiles of Salome and ordered the beheading of John the Baptist, was now eager for a free magic-show from Jesus, and conducted a kangaroo court which was a mockery of justice.
He recognized royalty
in the Christ, yet treated Him
with contempt and scorn.

THE PRAETORIUM

Pontius Pilate knew the truth: "I find no fault in Him."
But, lacking the courage of his convictions,
he sought only to save his own skin.

Here, on "The Pavement" before his Praetorium, Pontius Pilate released Barabbas to the howling mob, washed his own hands of the whole matter,
and then sentenced Christ to the Cross.

VIA DOLOROSA

Through the narrow winding streets of Jerusalem the procession went, toiling upward in the morning heat. Christ, beaten and exhausted, stumbled onward, grateful for the assistance (even though it may have been unwillingly given) of Simon of Cyrene, and paused to show concern for the women of Jerusalem whose wailing foretold His imminent death.

THE LORD'S SUPPER IN DRAMATIC FORM

We here at United should be appreciative of the annual presentation of DaVinci's Masterpiece, "The Lord's Supper" in dramatic form, for it is one of the few presented in the churches of our denomination. For 20 yrs. this presentation has been a part of the annual Lenten celebration here, with only two of those years being without the drama. We do appreciate the service of our men, who, in so far as they are able, annually give of their talents in this, and of the directors who always do such an able job. Thank you.

THE UPPER ROOM

One room, one meal, one evening—yet so full of meaning.
The companionship of that close-knit group;
the self-denying example of the footwashing;
the horrifying revelation of the impending betrayal;
the sacrificial-sacramental giving of Self in bread and wine
—thus, in this quiet place,
did the Christ share these brief hours with His disciples.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor: Because of the goodness of our God, He is desirous that our fellowship with Him be strong and vital. And to this end He has promised us the forgiveness of our sins and a renewal of association with Him as our heavenly Father. If we desire this, may we now bring to Him our concern.

People: Dear God, we do desire a closeness with Thee, which sin prevents. We would pray for Thy forgiveness of our wrongdoings and a cleansing of our lives from sin, that we can have this sense of inner peace. Grant us this forgiveness, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

THE KYRIE ELEISON, #518 in Hymnal

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us,

People sing: Lord, have mercy upon us

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us

People sing: Christ, have mercy upon us

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor: As our hearts are sincere and our petitions are earnest, thus does God forgive our sins. For as many as this affects, I announce the forgiveness of God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE RECOGNITION OF MOTHER AND FAMILIES

Statement by the Pastor

Mother's Day Memorial Service

Litany on our Homes

Pastor: Homes are very important to us. Lest we take for granted these homes and the good things we enjoy, let us thank God for them,

People: Loving Father, we would thank thee for our homes, and for folk who love us and take care of our needs. In the Name of Him who was always thankful.

Pastor: Jesus made his home in Nazareth a happier place for his family to live in. Let us ask God to help us think of ways in which we can help make our homes pleasant.

People: Our Father, we wish we might be as cheerful, fun-loving, and helpful as we know Jesus was. May we think of kindly surprising things we can do for our folk at home - and then may we do them.

Pastor: Sometimes we do things that break the happiness of our homes. Let us ask God to keep us from grumbling or showing ill-temper in our homes.

People: Our Father, because we're so thankful for the good fun we can have together in our homes, help us never to do or say things that will make others unhappy. Keep us cheerful when things go wrong and our own plans are upset; and may we grow in love and understanding of each other.

Pastor: He who would be popular must first begin the ways of thoughtful sharing at home. Let us pray that we may be 'delightful persons to have around' in our homes.

People: Our Father, help us to be worthy of the friendship of our parents and brothers and sisters. Amen.
