No Meetings this week, save possibly a special Church Council meeting, which will be privately arranged.
Mrs. Fader on Vacation and will not therefore be in the office. Calls to the office will be taken at the parsonage.
Next Sunday. Pastor Weisser will be conducting both services on the next Lord's Day, the services being at 8:00 and 10:15 a.m. with Church School at 9 a.m. His topic for the message will be "Begin With Me." We do have services each Sunday of the year at our church, and because of our air conditioning you can always depend upon it being comfortable, winter and summer. So, don't fail ever to come to God's House when you are in the city and not on vacation.
Please Remember. Though the summer edition of The Endeavor stated differently, we will not be having the Sacrament of Communion until World Wide Communion, the first Sunday in October. This was the decision of Church Council a year ago.

TO ALL WHO ENTER HERE

DOES IT SHOW IN YOUR FACE?

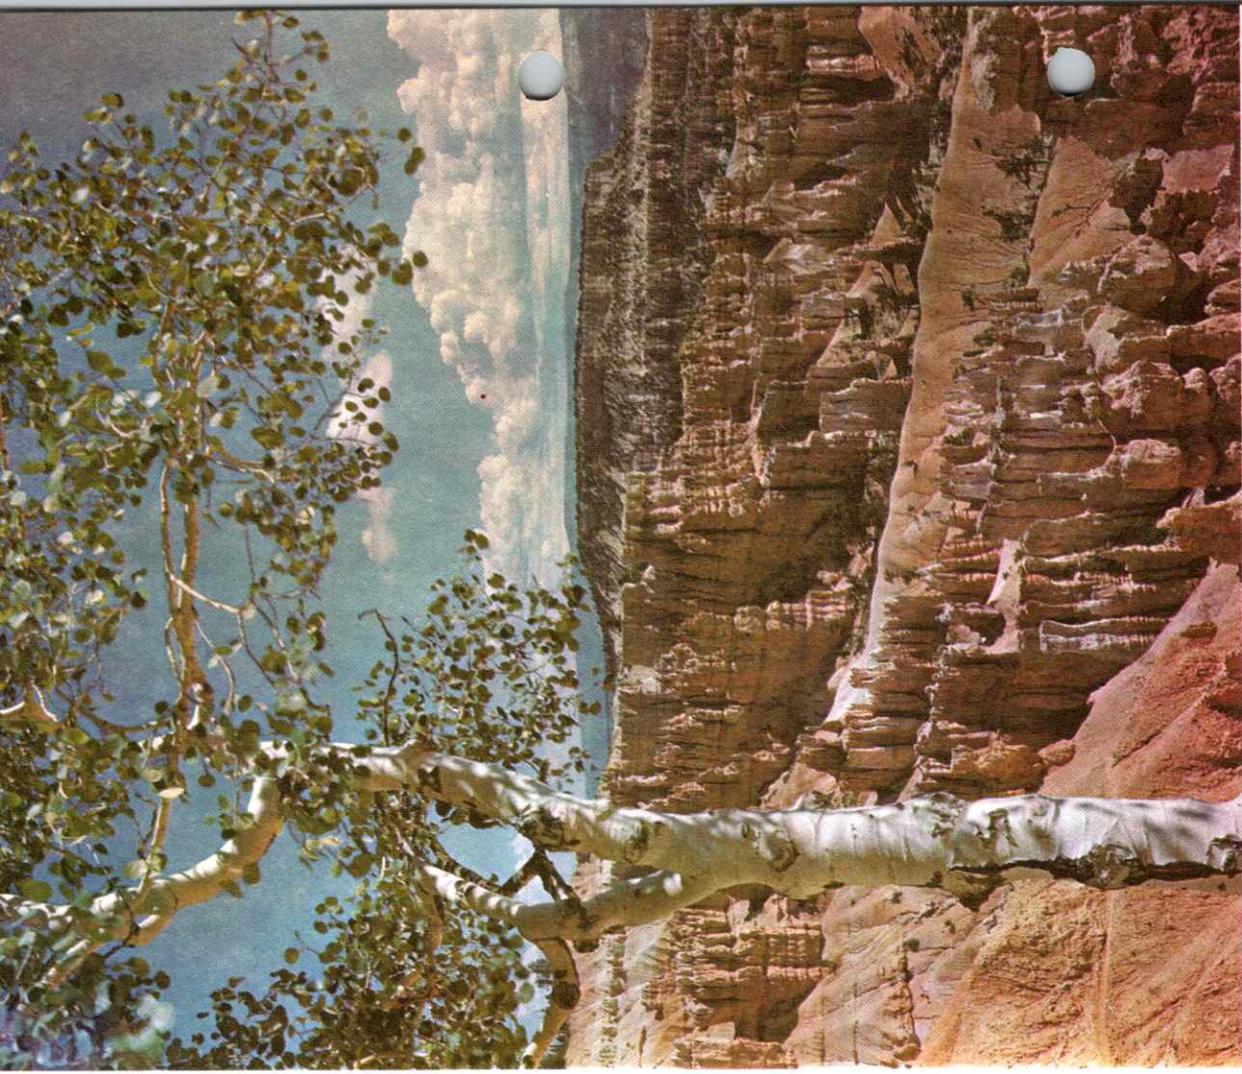

Are you the sort of person that a stranger would approach on the street and ask for directions? Would a child turn to you for help? Does a dog know that you will defend him? There are such people, people who inspire confidence, who have something in their faces that makes you willing to turn to them for help; whose voices warm your heart; who cause you to remember that God loves all His children.

Christian people are fond of saying that God is their Father. Do they always remember that God has asked His children to love one another? Do they stop to think that the ragged urchin, the black-skinned person, the unlettered vagrant, are part of God's family, and that if they claim God for their Father, they must claim all these as brothers and sisters? If one of God's children accepts all His other children and loves them, it will show in his face?

Christians should be the happiest people in the world. Do they always remember that God wants His children to be happy--not thoughtless and carefree, but happy through striving towards a better way of life; thru sharing the good things of life with those who have less.

Christians should be the strongest people in the world. God has promised them, 'As thy days, so shall thy strength be.' Are Christian people content with strength for the trials of one day, or do they demand that strength for a week, a month or a lifetime be given them at once? If one of God's children is satisfied with strength for each day as it comes, his strength will never fail, he will grow stronger day by day, and it will show in his face.

THE LITANY FOR THE 98TH ANNIVERSARY

Pastor: We come to thee, O God, on this 98th birthday of our church, with deep gratitude for the larger Church of the Living God, of which this church is a part - for that devoted fellowship of people who in every generation waited in prayer and meditation until divine tongues of fire descended upon them and they went forth to weave their vision into the on-going experiences of their everyday living.

People: We give thee thanks and we bless thy holy name.

Pastor: For all those brave and unselfish souls who in obedience to thy call have gone forth to rebuild the world; the martyrs of the Cross in all lands and times whose blood was too small a price for their devotion; for the prophets who dared to preach the good and condemn the evil; for the pioneers of religious freedom; for those who have labored and into the fruits of those labors we have entered, those who in the name of Christ wrought righteousness and abolished intemperance, who held aloft the Cross through the years.

People: We give our thanks for these, and bless thy holy name.

Pastor: Now to the unfinished work of the Church in our time we would dedicate ourselves and our church - there is much justice to yet be established, much honesty to be achieved, much brotherhood to be nurtured and much peace to be fostered. May we give ourselves to this in our time.

People: Yes, Lord, we dedicate ourselves.

A LITANY FOR CHURCH SCHOOL STAFF (10:15)

Pastor and Staff: Lord, Thou didst teach and we have been called by Thee to teach. We do not feel worthy of the love found in Thy School, but fill us with its reality and tenderness at all times.

Grant us zeal everlasting, so that when even pupils neglect us we may not be forlorn, nor pained when we are misunderstood
Pastor: Make us reflect Thy parental concern that with devotion we might work to mould each pupil into Thy perfect poem, that the melody of their praise might echo after our lips are earthly sealed.

Staff Members: Help us to make Thy Gospel relevant to this day and age, and enable us to stand firm constant in the struggle of faith, knowing that even in our weakness there is Divine Strength in Thee.

Pastor: Stand Thou by our side as a friend, to purify our teaching with Thy ever-glowing truth, that out of simplicity, depth, and the commonplace, we might seek to glorify Thy power and ways.

Staff Members: Grant that we may never carry to our tasks our petty cares, or maintain our trifling disappointments, that we might constantly build Thy school with the bricks of Thy Spirit.

Pastor: Grant us splendor of enthusiasm that we might go beyond our walls and fill our city with Thy spirit, that Thy good might mean more than the diamonds and richly pillared halls of the wealthy. May Thy sustaining spirit be the guide to all our discipline.

Pastor and Staff Members: Above all, thru the deeper meaning of Thy shared cross help us to teach and love so that we might enter into a throbbing, cosmic heart of Holy Compassion for all people, and might have a personal relationship with thee. We dedicate ourselves to Thy service anew. Amen.

People: We bless thee, O Lord.

People: Father, this is our desire.

Leader: That these cities....that sprawl like rubbish heaps, might really be human homes, light and bright, and sound and lovable,

People: Yes, Lord, this is also our prayer.

Leader: That commerce might be a network of intelligent cooperation instead of a savage strife of competitive interests,

People: Father, we promise to be concerned in these matters concerning our world.

Leader: That trade might be honest, open, and human-hearted; that wealth might be tempered, thoughtful and sacrificial; that no people might consider themselves as of more importance or above other peoples in our world,

People: Give us, O God, the might to assume responsibility to bring this to pass.

Leader: That the nations might be of one heart and mind, and all peoples free in a land which they know as their own,

People: On this World Order Sunday, we do take cognizance of these matters and vow to be your emissaries in this task of evolving World Order in our day. (Amen)

A LITANY OF GOODWILL AND PEACE

Leader: We look for a city which hath foundation, whose Builder and Maker is God, Yet have we not forgotten that in this city all must have a share, including those races which we are accustomed to term backward?

People: Have we not failed to realize the contribution which every race can make to true civilization? Have we not been guilty of limiting our gifts of friendship to men and women whose skins match our own in color?

Leader: We look for a city which hath foundations, whose Builder and Maker is God, Yet do we not see it still only in terms of our own national ideals?

People: Have we not allowed national prejudices, fears and hatred to inflame our minds, and warp our Judgments? Have we not been ready to answer offense with violence and thus prepare the way for war?

Leader: That the city of God may be built, we are firmly resolved to love all men as our brothers; To see in all men, of whatever race or color, heirs of the kingdom to be, joint builders with us of the City of God.

People: We are firmly resolved: To do all in our power to prevent the exploitation of weaker races by stronger, particularly by our own..... We are firmly resolved to live by the vision of a world-wide friendship and to look upon our own nation as but one of a great family. We are firmly resolved to let no fear of friend or foe

unnerve us, as we labor for peace in this world. (Amen)

People: Gracious God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has promised to receive us when we come unto thee; we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word and deed. We have disobeyed thy law and have not loved our neighbors. Forgive us, O God, free us from sin, and grant that we may live and serve thee in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Amen)

A LITANY FOR REFORMATION SUNDAY

Leader: O God, we pray for thy church, which is set today amid the perplexities of a changing order, and face to face with a great new task,

People: We remember with love the nurture she gave to our spiritual life in its infancy, the influence of the devoted hearts she gathers, the steadfast power for good she has exerted.

Leader: When we compare her with all other human institutions, we rejoice, for there is none like her. But when we judge her by the mind of the Master, we bow in pity and contrition,

People: Oh, baptize her afresh in the life-giving spirit of Jesus. Grant her a new birth, though it be with the travail of repentance and humiliation.

Leader: Bestow upon her a more imperious responsiveness to duty, a swifter compassion with suffering, and an utter loyalty to the will of God,

People: Help her to proclaim boldly the coming of the kingdom of God and the doom of all that resist it. Fill her with the prophets' scorn of tyranny, and with a Christ-like tenderness of the heavy-laden and down-trodden.

Leader: Give her faith to espouse the cause of the people, and in their hands that grope after freedom and light to recognize the bleeding hands of Christ. Bid her cease from seeking her own life, lest she lose it

People: Make her valiant to give up her life to humanity, that like her crucified

Lord she may mount by the path of the cross to a higher glory. (Amen)

Leader: Our Father, because we depend for our very existence and living upon others, may we ever grow so that we will -

People: Do more for others than we would have others do for us.

Leader: Help us, O God, ever to remember the hosts of those known and unknown who denied themselves, who gave themselves in death and in living that we might have our great commonwealth of literature, art, music, culture and of institutions. We pray Our Father, that ever we may so grow -

People: That we will do more for others than we would have others do for us.

Leader: May we be mindful that our church is here because of the giving of others before us; that our church today can exist and carry on its work only as we are ready to give of ourselves and our treasures for its continuance and growth; that this church in the future will be a treasured heritage to our children as we today by our giving enable it to be a potent force in the furtherance of Thy Kingdom here and abroad. We pray, our Father, that we will so express our stewardship -

People: That we will give more for the church and others than we ever have before.

Leader: May we ever remember, Our Father, that the very wealth and richness of our own living is dependent upon the fact that others did more for us than they ever expected us to do for them; that they lived their lives for something more holy and more important than themselves, that they lived by the ideal of Christ 'For their sake I consecrate myself.' Help us to grow

A LITANY OF MEMORY

Leader: O Thou, before whose face the generations rise and pass away, who dost commit to us the swift and solemn trust of life, from whom we come, to whom we return, on whom at every moment we depend, from our many homes and varied tasks we have come to this high and holy place to worship thee, drawn by a common sympathy, a common affection. To thee our fathers and our father's fathers came with their hopes and fears, their joys and sorrows. To thee our children's children will turn for strength and guidance long after our brief moment of life is done.

People: We worship and adore thee, O God.

Leader: For thy servants whom thou gavest the world and hast now received to thyself we give our joyous and grateful thanks.

People: We give thee thanks.

Leader: We who see youth cut off in the springtime of their years, all their promised fruitage denied; we who witness the cessation of life at that mature age when the achievements of labor are just about to be realized; who see folk in the latter years of life continue on to a beautiful sunset of tranquility ere they die - we know that all things work together for good by Thy will, though we understand not.
People: Yes, Lord, give us a continued faith in Thy goodness and providence.

Leader: Trustfully we commit to thee them whose every need thou knowest. Give them light and life; peace and joy, in thy nearer presence. May their active, questing minds and willing spirits find congenial employment in the spacious fields of eternity.

People: We so petition thee, O Lord.

Leader: Keep us who remain beneath the shelter of thy wing, giving us strength to do our work while it is day and rest at eventide when our work is done. Because of the frailty and transiency of our mortal life, because of the subduing and solemnizing thoughts that death brings, hear us as once again we ask of thy fatherly hand those gifts of thy grace which are requisite for us all: forgiveness and cleansing for our sins, light for our darkness, courage for life's battles, endurance for life's pain.

People: We pray this petition be granted, and all to thine honor and glory. (Amen)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Year's Eve Service at 8 p.m. This will be a preaching service and not of undue length, enabling you to attend the New Year's Eve festivities after. Music by our choirs and the message by Pastor Rasche.

Service on Sunday, Jan. 2, 1972 at 10:15 a.m.
Service for the first Sunday of the New Year. Because of the proximity of Sunday to New Year's Day, we have only the one service. No communion until Sun. Jan. 9. Church School session at regular hour of 9 a.m.

Get your 1972 envelopes this morning, sure!
This will be about your last opportunity to secure your envelopes before the new year begins. You'll find same on tables downstairs.

1972 calendars available, as long as supply lasts. Ask usher for one.

Mrs. Barbara Irons has relinquished her post as Musical Director here with the end of the year. Thus this will be her last Sunday, tho she will still serve on New Year's Eve. We do thank Mrs. Irons for her efforts in serving on our staff and wish her well in her new work with one of the educational institutions of our city. Thanks again, Barbara.

THE LITANY The Ten Commandments

Pastor: God spake these words, and said,
I am the Lord thy God; Thou shalt have no
other gods before me.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thy self to them nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain..

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Honor thy father and thy mother;
that the days may be long upon the land
which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not kill; thou shalt not commit adultery; thou shalt not steal.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and in-
cline our hearts to keep this law.

Pastor: Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor; thou shalt not covet.

People: Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee. Amen.
