and our

150th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION!

Founded in 1873 by German immigrants, this church is inexorably tied to the history and lives of Canton and Highlandtown in southeast Baltimore. 2023 marked our sesquicentennial anniversary (150) which we celebrate and honor today. This Anniversary Book begins with the liturgy for this morning's special worship service. It ends with the program for this evening's dinner and celebration at the American Legion Hall in Dundalk (see page XX for a map and directions). But in between, are pages dedicated to a loving look, not only back, but at the present, our plans for the future, and the support of our friends and community.

In 1933 this church, then called the German United Evangelical Church, celebrated its 60th anniversary, with a program book much like this one. Opposite is the dedication page from that book. We'd like to dedicate this book, 90 years later, with those same words and prayers for the past, the present, and the future.

Dedication

To Those of Yesterday

the fathers and mothers of the faith who organized or preserved for us our beloved United Church

To Those of the Present

who are carrying on the duties and perpetuating the influence of the work of those who have preserved us in faith

And to Those of the Future

our children, and the strangers that shall come into our gates and merge their interests with those of others, and thus become living links in the chain that binds our hearts in Christian love

These Pages are Affectionately Dedicated

Some things to know...

Restrooms in the church: We have multiple restrooms. On this floor, through the Quiet Room doors, is an all gender restroom. Downstairs in the Fellowship Hall is an accessible all gender restroom as well as separate men's and women's rooms.

Worship Service: The Service begins at 3 pm and will end by 5 pm. The Liturgy begins on page 6.

Dinner: The buffet dinner, at the American Legion Hall in Dundalk, begins at 5:30 pm. On page 18 there's a map and directions to get to the Hall. On page 46 is tonight's menu as well as information about alcohol consumption and beverages.

In Loving Memory

UEC's oldest member. Mrs. Ameila Margaret Lamm, mother of Ms. John Lamm. Passed on March 27, 2025 to be with our Lord at the age of 101 years old. Ameila was Baptized and Confirmed at First German United Evangelical Church at an early age and accepted and believed in Jesus Christ under Pastor Reverend William Batz.

Prelude: "Holy, Holy, Holy" (arr. John Purifoy)

Welcome and Introduction of Guests
Rev. Stephen Fair

*Opening Hymn: #544 The Church's One Foundation

*Call To Worship: Responsively
Rev. Dr. Marietta Hebert-Davis

Leader: The Church has gathered here for over 150 years. We are gathered in the place where the saints of old have gathered.

People: We pray where our forebearers prayed.
We sing where they have sung.

Leader: We preach where our predecessors preached, we celebrate the Sacred Mysteries where such celebrations have taken place for over a century and a half.

People: We receive the Holy Spirit where so many have begun their earthly journey. We receive the presence of Christ where so many have been fed with the Bread of life.

Leader: Come, let us worship and begin the next step of the Journey. In the name of the Creator, Christ and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

*Call to Confession: Leader

Rev. Jo Oatman

Siblings in Christ, we are united with Christ... to God, our Creator.

*Prayer of Confession: Unison

Almighty God, maker of all things, judge of all people, we acknowledge and confess our manifold sins which we from time to time have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against your Divine Majesty. We do earnestly repent and are heartily sorry for these, our misdoings. The remembrance is grievous to us. Have mercy, have mercy upon us, most merciful God; for the sake of our Savior, Jesus Christ, forgive us all our sins; and grant that we may hereafter serve and please you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your name; through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Leader: Holy God. Holy and Mighty. Holy, Immortal one

People: Have mercy on us

*Assurance of Pardon:

Leader: Listen now to the comforting assurance...the Holy Spirit. Amen.

*Passing of the Peace:

Leader: The peace of God be with you

People: And also with you

Leader: Share with one another a sign of the peace of God.

Tinsel Sunday

*Praise Song: (page 14) Canticle of the Sun (M. Haugen)

Prayer of the Day: Responsively
Minister Lois Carrigan

Leader: God be with you

People: And also with you

Leader: Let us pray

Unison: God of grace and God of glory, you are forever present in the church and in our lives. You called us into covenant with all people of all time and place. You have called us to proclaim the Gospel to all the world. Send your Holy Spirit upon us and enable us to share faith, hope, and love with the Canton community. This we pray in the name of Jesus, our Savior. Amen.

Hymn #341 Jesus Shall Reign

*Statement of Faith: Unison

We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being, create persons in your own image, and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior, you have come to us oand shared our common lot, conquering sin and death and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be your servants in the service of others, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust your forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, your presence in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.

Hymn: #695 As We Gather at Your Table

Order of Holy Communion

Rev. Holly Jackson and Rev. Craig Peterson

* Invitation to Holy Communion: Responsively

Leader: Our Savior, Jesus Christ has, throughout history, fed the church with his most sacred body and blood. Our predecessors gathered here for over 150 years to eat the bread, drink the cup, and experience Christ's presence.

People: This is the joyful feast of the people of God. All people, young and old, come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and gather about Christ's table.

Leader: This table is for all who wish to know the presence of Christ and to share in the community of God's people.

BALTIMORE CITY

A brigade of volunteer cooks prepared the annual sour beef and dumpling dinner for United Evangelical Church.

et of lettuce, tofu and reduced-calorie salad dressing.

"We used 20 50-pound bags of potatoes and 1,050 pounds of beef. It hit it pretty close and I ran out nicely," Fader said.

Why do some Baltimoreans cherish an invitation to a sour beef dinner?

At the turn of this century, one in four people here spoke German as their mother tongue. That's reason enough why local restaurants, seeking to develop a faithful clientele, promote the dish on their menus.

And because the dish requires days of preparation — and that special skill to make and boil a potato dumpling — it cannot be turned out on 30 minutes' notice.

People mark their calendars for Fader's church dinner. There's an official program, with patrons and sponsors. If it's an election year, the spotlessly clean church hall is visited by political hopefuls.

To miss campaigning at a sour beef dinner is an act of political suicide in some parts of Baltimore.

"There have been times when we had so many people I had to close the door," Fader said.

The sour beef dinner will never have as many followers as an oyster-and-bull roast or crab feast, but it remains a close cousin to these neighborhood events.

And like the oyster roasts, there is also the question of how much to eat.

"Years and years ago, we gave our diners four dumplings instead of three. But today, people are satisfied with three," Fader said.

If you're up for a sour beef dinner, this is the high point of the season. Here's a listing of some dinners.

Tonight and Thursday, Zion Lutheran Church, near City Hall Plaza and the city's oldest German congregation, holds its meal in the church basement at Holliday Street near Lexington Street. Dinner tonight lasts until 7 p.m.; lunch tomorrow is from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church, Beason and Decatur streets in Locust Point (South Baltimore near Fort McHenry), holds its dinner Nov. 2 from 11:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Nov. 3 from 11:30 a.m. until the food runs out. Some sour beef fanciers consider this to be one of the best events of its kind.

Sacred Heart of Jesus Roman Catholic Church, 3420 Foster Ave. in Highlandtown, holds its dinner Nov. 7 from 1 to 6 p.m. and Nov. 8 from 5 to 8 p.m. This is the largest sour beef dinner in Baltimore and there can be some waiting before you are served. The crowds do not seem to mind.

Sour Beef & Oktoberfest

For decades, United Evangelical sponsored Sour Beef and Dumpling dinners. From 2007-2017, the church hosted an annual Oktoberfest Street Festival and the dinners went outside on Dillon Street. Sour beef and dumplings is a tradition in Canton as the article below says, "At the turn of the [19th] century, one in four people here spoke German as their mother tongue."

Baltimore Sun article, 1990s

Sweet taste of sour beef

■ Supper: The unlikely dish that features beef marinated in vinegar served with a gravy thickened with gingersnaps is a favorite for church dinners.

By JACQUES KELLY
SUN STAFF

For those whose fine-dining ideal involves folding chairs, crockery bowls and noisy acoustics, there is nothing like the bountiful fall fare of a warm church hall on sour beef supper night.

Their idea of bliss is an evening heavy on the gingersnap gravy and homemade potato dumplings, along with a seat at a communal table filled with happy and satisfied eaters.

"I come to these dinners because the food is so good and I meet so many nice people," said Sarah McCardell, a North Baltimore resident who scans the sidewalks for church supper signs. She also checks the local listings in papers such as the Catholic

Busy Robert Armstrong, pastor of United Evangelical Church, oversees the dumpling making in the kitchen of his church in Canton. Preparation for the sour beef dinner, which continues today, began a week ago.

Review.

Churches schedule sour beef dinners only once a year because of their labor-intensive requirements — boiling potatoes for the dumplings, a lengthy marinade for the meat and the trick of perfect, no-lump gravy. Crab cake, ham, spaghetti or oyster suppers are more commonplace.

"I'm very proud of our gravy. It's smooth as velvet," said Grace E. Fader, a long-time member of the United Evangelical Church, at Dillon Street and East Avenue in Canton, where the sour beef supper opened yesterday.

An all-volunteer kitchen normally feeds about 1,400 people for the annual event, which continues today as long as the steaming bowls of grandmotherly fare hold out. They'll go through 1,000 pounds each of potatoes and beef before it's over.

This event and as others like it attract a dedicated and hungry band of church members, their friends and people who want the kind of traditional supper they had as children, not the Caesar-chicken salad cuisine that so many restaurants feature today.

Perhaps the mileage record holder for church-supper attending goes to Charles Biddison, a retired Cockeysville bill collector who puts 200 to 300 miles a week on his car searching for the obscure but tasty church-hall dinners he savors.

Pastor: We remember that on the night of betrayal... we may continue faithful in all things.

People: In the strength Christ gives us, we offer ourselves to you, eternal God, and give thanks that you have called us to serve you. Amen.

*Prayer of Our Savior

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.:
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

God is still speaking, UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

The United Church of Christ (UCC) is a distinct and diverse community of Christians who come together as one church to join in faith and action. With more than 5,100 churches and 1.1 million members across the US, the UCC serves God in the co-creation of a just and sustainable world.

The UCC is a church of firsts, a church of extravagant welcome, and a church where "... they may all be one" (John 17:21). The UCC has no rigid formulation of doctrine or attachment to creeds or structures. Its overarching creed is love. UCC pastors and teachers are known for their commitment to excellence in theological preparation, interpretation of the scripture and justice advocacy. Even so, love and unity in the midst of our diversity are our greatest assets.

To learn more about the UCC visit www.ucc.org.

United Evangelical Church Open and Affirming Covenant

We, the congregation of United Evangelical Church, UCC, reaffirm our mission statement that reads "We seek to continue Jesus' mission of: Reaching out. Embracing everyone. Enriching all. Becoming living examples. Bonding all with the love of God." Therefore we declare ourselves to be an open and affirming congregation, welcoming into the full life and ministry of the church persons of every race, culture, age, gender, sexual orientation, ability and economic status.

We recognize that there remains differences of opinion among us, and while we do not seek to erase our differences, we believe that through our diversity, all can grow and practice a unity of faith that transcends our differences.

Believing that every person has worth as a unique creation made in the image of God, we welcome all in our journey together in faith toward a greater understanding and mutual respect.

Please support our Street Ministry by donating items. Donations are accepted Sundays before and after worship and by appointment. Give us a call at 410-276-0393 or email us at uecucc@comcast.net.

Words from the Pastor

"Oh, give thanks to the Lord,
for he is good,
for his steadfast love
endures forever!"

Psalm 107:1.

My heart is grateful for the outpouring of love and support from the UEC Congregation. God has certainly allowed spiritual growth in both of us. You stepped up to the challenge with open arms to learn new ways of worshipping God from the lens of an African American woman who is an Ordained UCC Clergy.

A special thank you to the youth Conner, Dakota, and Aiden's faithfulness in serving God. Mrs. Carol Borkman's dedication to Children/Youth, along with Alissa Huber's children's stories during worship. To the Council members, especially Council President Jennifer Borkman, and VP Calvin Gundlach, and Rev. Stephen Fair, Mrs. Kathy Fair, and Music Director, Robert Gundlach have shown me for the last two years in the midst of the church transition.

Jesus' ministry is never to be done in isolation. The UEC Breaking News staff, Kelli, Steven, and Josh's weekly creativity, Kelli for countless hours of creating slides for every church event. Thank you to the church office staff, Abby Markowitz and Denise Glover for assisting me with special projects.

You smiled through a few frowns when learning some new songs of African descent but you were willing to learn them. You welcomed a different style of Worship with "Amen" responses, the use of the clappers, tambourines, being "voluntold" to read scripture, and lastly getting up out of your seats to say "Neighbor O Neighbor."

I witnessed as you enjoyed the seminary students on Good Friday exposing you to different interpretations on the "7 Last Words," of Jesus Christ. You opened my eyes to the special event of Tinsel Sunday celebrating Jesus' birthday. And those wonderful prizes at Bingo, thanks to Barb Matthew.

Many thanks to UEC volunteers, Mrs. Kathy Miller, Bobby Brackett, Patricia Rayside, Laura Crane, Shaniqua (NeNe) Jones, Pete and Pam Koutsoutis.

To Council member Travis Hogan through his health challenges always showed up support the needs of the church. Thank you, Pam G, for accompanying me on some of the sick & shut-in visits. Mrs. Mae Savage, (best hugger) in the world. Lastly, thank you to the Search & Call committee as they work tirelessly to assist UEC in choosing the next part-time Settled Pastor. I will miss you only for a moment because I will return you are my new family in Christ.
