"I must be fit for a child to follow,
Scorning the places where loose men wallow;
Knowing how much he shall learn from me,
I Must be fair as I'd have him be;
I must come home to him, day by day,
Clean as the morning I went away.

I must be fit for a child's glad greeting,
His are eyes that there is no cheating;
He must behold me in every test,
Not at my worst, but my very best;
He must be proud when my life is done
To have men know that he is my son."

Edgar A. Guest.

MY DAD.

There are Dads that make us happy,
There are Dads that make us blue;
There are Dads who love us like a brother-
Day by day we find them always true;
There are Dads who fill our lives with sunshine-
They are always making us feel glad;
But MY DAD, oh, gee! he is a dandy,
He's the best Dad I ever had.
