

NEW EAGLE SCOUTS Gary Pate (from left), Robert Jackson and Steven Cooper were honored at Troop 19's award dinner held at United Evangelical Church.

Eastside Scouts Honored

Three Eastside youths were honored at the recognition dinner of Troop #19 of the Boy Scouts of America, held at United Evangelical Church on East Avenue on December 4 with their Pastor, the Rev. Paul Rasche giving the invocation. Eagle Awards, the highest rank bestowed upon a Scout, were presented to Gary Pate, Robert Jackson and Steven Cooper, by Kenneth Luckhardt, with Ron Modo acting at M.C.

Gary Pate, 14, a student at Polytechnic, and a Sunday School worker and member of the Senior Youth group at United, has a six year perfect attendance record in the Cubs and Scouts, in addition to the various merit badges and scouting awards he has won.

Robert Jackson, 15, a tenth grader and Key Club Member at Patterson High, is a Sunday School worker and a member of the Junior Youth Council, and Senior Youth Group at United. He also has a record of perfect attendance in the Cubs and Scouts of seven years, and has many awards of merit, receiving the "Ideal of Scouting" award in 1972.

Steve Cooper, 15, attending Hampstead Hill Jr. High, is a member of Abbott Memorial Presbyterian Church and in addition to his numerous merit badges and scouting awards, is a member of the Order of the Arrow and the National Rifle Association.