UNISON PRAYER

Eternal and everblessed God, who makest all things new, we thank Thee that today Thou hast allowed us to begin a new year.

Here in Thy presence we make our resolutions for the days to come.

We resolve to be faithful and true to those who love us, and loyal to those who are our friends, so that we may never bring worry to their minds or distress to their hearts.

We resolve to live in forgiveness and in kindness, that, like our Master, we may go about ever doing good.

We resolve to live in diligence and in effort, that we use to the full the gifts and the talents which Thou hast given unto us.

We resolve to live in goodness and in purity, that we ourselves may resist temptation, and that we may be a strength to others who are tempted.

We resolve to live in sympathy and in gentleness, that we may bring comfort to the sorrowing and understanding to the perplexed.

We resolve to live in serenity and in self-control, that no anger and no passion may disturb our own peace and the peace of others.

We resolve to live in full obedience and in perfect love to Thee, that in doing Thy will we may find our peace.

O God, our Father, who hast given us grace to make our resolutions, grant us also strength to keep them all this year: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

NEW YEAR'S THOUGHT

and I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: "Give me light that I may tread safely into the unknown." * * And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."

BLESSED NEW YEAR IN 1961

be yours. May all of us realize that it is in trust in God's guidance we are able to carry on. Here are some - - - RESOLUTIONS FOR THE NEW YEAR.

WHEREAS - The Old Year has departed with his finished Book of Days, wherein were written failures, trials, heartaches not a few; Now we're wondering if the New Year will be like unto the Old, Or if each day will bring us an experience strange and new.

RESOLVED - That if he brings us tears, not smiles as we had hoped, We bear our troubles bravely, and not let our tears o'er flow into other lives around us that already may be bowed, With a weight of crushing sorrow such as we may never know.

RESOLVED - That we take the Old Year's failures, trials, disappointments - all, and bury them 'neath purpose strong, away beyond recall. When we see a weaker comrade wandering down the lower road, That we call a cheery greeting - it may save him from a fall.

to Mrs. Naomi Binko as Organist and Choir Director. We are always aware of the great part music, the organ playing and the choir anthems have in the worship service of the Church. Will you extend to her just a word of greeting and well wishes as you have a chance.

"A PURPOSEFUL CHURCH"

is the theme for a series of sermons in January. Dr. Gertrude Hoy, missionary, will be our guest in Church and Sunday school on January 15th.

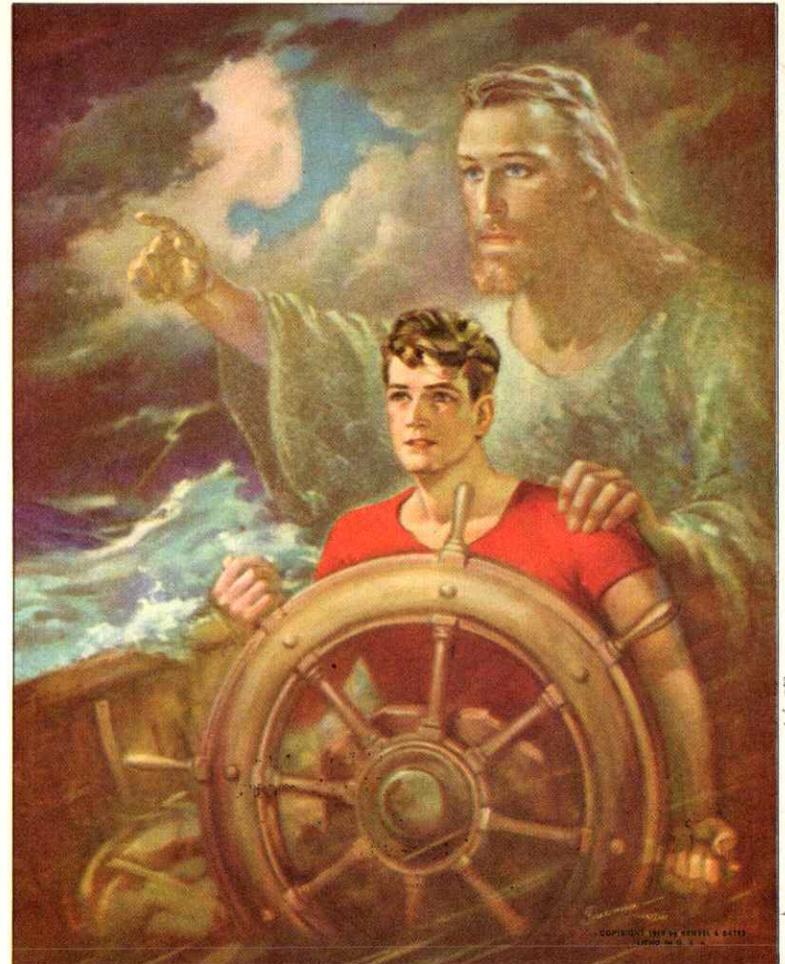

HEALING MISSION - Wednesday, 7:00 P.M.

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTIONS - Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.

CHURCH COUNCIL MEETING - Postponed to January 10th.

LADIES' AID MEETING - Wednesday, Jan. 4th at 7:30 P.M.

UPPER ROOM COPIES - for January and February are at hand. Be sure to take a copy, for prayer and devotion is essential in the life of a Christian-young or old.

UNISON PRAYER FOR EPIPHANY

Most holy and gracious God, who art Lord of the spirits of all mankind, and whose love embraces every human creature, in this hour of worship we praise and bless Thee for the manifestation to all the world of Thy dear and glorious Son, Christ Jesus. We thank Thee for the inestimable benefit given to the children of men in his coming into the world.

Quicken our understanding of his gospel of brotherhood, that we may know all men to be Thy children, as precious in Thy sight as we like to think ourselves. Grant that we may long for their prosperity in soul and in circumstance as we do for our own. Make us generous of our substance, our service and our prayers, to minister to every sort of spiritual and material need, among ourselves or in far lands. Keep us from the sin of false pride, whether of race or color, wealth or nation, since all of right stand erect before Thee as full brethren. As Christ our Lord came to one nation and people, yet became saviour and redeemer of all, so enlarge our vision to perceive that the mission of Thy gospel is one,
not alone to east or west, north or south.
Among the peoples whom Thou wouldst redeem prosper, we beseech Thee, the cause of brotherhood and peace. Grant that by our patience, tolerance and forbearance, as well as by our holy zeal, we of Thy Church may be worthy instruments of him whom the Magi of old sought and found in Bethlehem, who came to our world as Prince of Peace. Amen.

SPIRITUAL BUILDING

is our emphasis at this time. We build spiritually in ourselves by devotion, prayer and being of service. We build in others by sincerity, prayers for them and the spirit of kindness, friendship and helpfulness. Let us have this kind of a spirit-the spirit of Jesus Christ - in our Midst at all times.

A PURPOSEFUL CHURCH

is a Church that knows the place from where it came-our Lord's Person and the Gospel; the road on which it is going; as a servant of men and of God; and that has a Goal to bring glory to God. The Pastor wants to think with you on the Imperative Demands of Jesus. He said "Go Preach" (and that is our emphasis this morning); He tells us to go into all the world.

We have a missionary guest next Sunday January 14th Dr. Gertrude Hoy, a missionary to Japan. She will speak in both services, as well as in some of the departments of the Sunday school.

On January 22nd the Imperative Demand of Jesus-
"To Teach" will be our consideration. This is also Council of Churches Sunday and we will consider some aspects of this work.

On January 29th we will join with young people the world over in Youth Sunday. The young people of the Church will take part in the theme: "TOGETHER."
An interesting service is being arranged under the direction of our Youth leaders.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

is the big event for the men and boys of the Church on Wednesday, January 25th at 6:30 P.M. Be sure to get your tickets early, as we are limited in the number of people we can take care of in our Friendship Hall.

P L E A S E

get your E N V E L O P E S FOR 1 9 6 1 in the Friendship Hall, if you haven't already done so. Please, take care of this privilege so you may share in the work of the Church.

UNISON PRAYER OF REMEMBRANCE OF ALL PEOPLES

ALMIGHTY God, we lift to thee our hopes and prayers for all peoples of the world; thou know-est their condition and need as we do not, and our thoughts of them are poor because we have not cared enough to seek knowledge of them. Accept thou our prayer as we turn outward the earnestness of our hearts, uniting our wills with thine own mighty intention of good for them:

WE remember the great lands of Africa and the Middle East, ancient home of kings, birthplace of our culture, land of bitter wrongs, of ignorance and fear, of disease and death; yet a land of promise, eager and strong men and women seeking freedom and thee.

WE remember the peoples of India and all Asia that their divisions may be healed, their emancipation in thee established, and their wisdom increased to accept only that which ennobles and exalts.

WE remember the peoples of Latin America, struggling upward from ignorance and chaos into swift new achievement and promise, yet hampered by tragic failures of government and of enlightenment, that they may find their destiny anew in thy purpose.

WE remember the people of the isles and continents of the seas, whose new civilization has sprung up beside ancient tribal ways, that in a day of swift planes and ships, they may share what is deepest and best in the world's ways.

GRANT, O God, that our imagination may be stretched to enable us to share the need and also the exultation of men everywhere; that so we may dwell in a large place, and make thy Church strong in every land, in every tongue, for every people, in Christ Jesus. Amen.

UNISON PRAYER OF AND FOR YOUTH - By: Chas. Hammerbacher

O God, who through thy Spirit in the young Carpenter of Nazareth hast changed the face of the world and in every age dost call the fresh vigor of new life to thy service, we pray thee for the youth of our generation.

We beseech thee to hear us, O Lord.

Guard the character of our youth and preserve their integrity against the day of thy call to service. Now in the springtime of their years may they not strip blossoms from their trees to make transient garlands of pleasure, only to find when autumn comes that there is no fruit.

We beseech thee to hear us, O Lord.

From flippancy and cynicism, from deadening unbelief and purposeless living, from vulgar tastes and sensual deeds, Good Lord, deliver them.

From mistaking license for liberty, from surrender to the tyranny of undisciplined desires, from the slavery of habits which, free to begin, they are not free to stop, Good Lord, deliver them.

We praise thee for the zest and radiance of youth and for the untamed hopes with which the young continually refresh the earth, and since old customs, grown too old, corrupt the world, use thou in our time their undimmed eyes to see and their undiscouraged vigor to achieve thy will.

Lord, have mercy upon us and grant us this blessing.

Enlist their unbroken strength in service of the commonweal; temper their recklessness into moral courage; out of their youthful spirit of daring bring the maturity of independent minds and venturesome endeavors; and so lead them from youth to age that, undishonored and unashamed, they may transmit to their children a better world than ours.

Lord, have mercy upon us and grant us this blessing. Amen.

who tended and cared for us in years when we were helpless to help ourselves; who toiled and sacrificed to give to us our chance in life; at whose knees we learned to pray, and from whose lips we first heard the name of Jesus:

We give Thee thanks, O God.

For teachers who taught us; For ministers of Thy gospel who instructed us in Thy truth and in Thy faith; For all those who have been an example to us of what life should be; For those whose influence on us will never cease, and whose names will never depart from our memory;

We give Thee thanks, O God.

For the saints, the prophets and the martyrs;
For those who lived and died for the faith; And, above all else, for Jesus, the captain of our salvation and the author and finisher of our faith:

We give Thee thanks, O God.

BRING SOMEONE WITH YOU

** ANNOUNCEMENTS ****

WE WELCOME ALL

Our Communion service is open to all who have been baptized and received into any church as members. This cleansing and inspiring fellowship with Christ and with one another is a high point in our experience. We are thinking today about the other sacrament of the Protestant Churches - BAPTISM - for by it we enter into this fellowship, we are made members of the Church and the Kingdom of God. Therefore baptism should be regarded very highly by all Christians.

campaign is under way. We work together with other Protestant Churches of the city, county and state in a work that we could not do by ourselves. This holds true of the larger Kingdom work. Mrs. May Getz is Chairlady and Miss Dorothy Trautner is Co-chairlady. Others helping with the campaign are Mrs. L. Nally, Mrs. C. Grape, Miss B. Will and Mrs. G. Fader.

BOY AND GIRL SCOUTS

will be honored in our Church service next Sunday at 10:15 A.M. We are happy to do this, for a fine service is being rendered by the leaders. "Go-Teach" will be the theme for the service. Since it will also be Race Relationship Sunday, and we will observe Abraham Lincoln's birthday, this should be a big day for us.

GAS AND ELECTRIC DEMONSTRATION

sponsored by the Young Women's Guild will be held on Tuesday February 14, Thursday February 16 and Friday February 17 at 7:30 P.M. Admission FREE.

LENTEN SERVICES

begin with Ash Wednesday, February 15 at 7:30 P.M. At that time a beautiful colored film "I Beheld His Glory" will be shown. The Pastor's theme for Lent will be: "CHRIST ON THE CROSS CAUSES CONFESSION AND PROFESSION." Special services will be announced as we go along. The Young Women's Guild will again sponsor Lenten sales on Fridays. Baked goods sales each Wednesday after the services by various organizations.

WE CONGRATULATE

our February graduates from High schools and wish them well in their future endeavors.

"PRAYER" Led by Joan Deegan

O Lord, without whom our labor is but lost, and with whom Thy little ones go forth as the mighty; we humbly beseech Thee to prosper all works in Thy Church undertaken according to Thy holy will, especially the work of young and old, and grant to Thy laborers a pure intention, patient faith, sufficient success upon earth, and the blessedness of serving Thee in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"PRAYER" Led by Harry Schloegel

O God, who dost behold and bless the young men and women in thy household the Church, look with thy favor upon the young people gathered here in thy Name and presence; guide their growing minds and bodies, kindle their imagination with high resolves, lead their eager independence into good channels and knit them close to thee and to their Christian brothers and sisters in every land; through him who came to set men free, thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

"PRAYER" Led by Richard Woelfer

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, bless, we pray thee, our work for the extension of thy kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King; through the same Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.

WE ARE GLAD

to welcome our Girl Scout Troop No. 67 and Boy Scout Troop No. 19 into our worship service today. We appreciate the fine work being done by the Scout leader, Mrs. Dorothy Long and her assistants, and by Scoutmaster, Mr. Howard Jenkins and his associates. It is also fine that the various organizations of the Church "back them up" in this work by moral support and financial help.

THE COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

appreciates the fine response on part of our people. If you still have some envelopes and a contribution to make, please do so at your earliest convenience.

GAS AND ELECTRIC DEMONSTRATION

sponsored by the Young Women's Guild will be held on Tuesday February 14, Thursday February 16 and Friday February 17 at 7:30 P.M. Admission FREE. We receive cash and credit for each one who registers in the name of our Church. Please note United Evangelical Church on your card. (Place: Friendship Hall)

COLORED FILM "I BEHELD HIS GLORY"

to be shown Ash Wednesday, February 15 at 7:30 P.M. This film is about an hour's length. This service is of deep and worshipful importance, as we begin the Lenten season. "Christ on the Cross Causes Confession and Profession" is the general theme for the season. Our first subject next Sunday centers in our Lord Jesus Christ as we think of HIS SINLESSNESS. We trust that all of you have received the Lenten announcements.

LENTEN GOODS

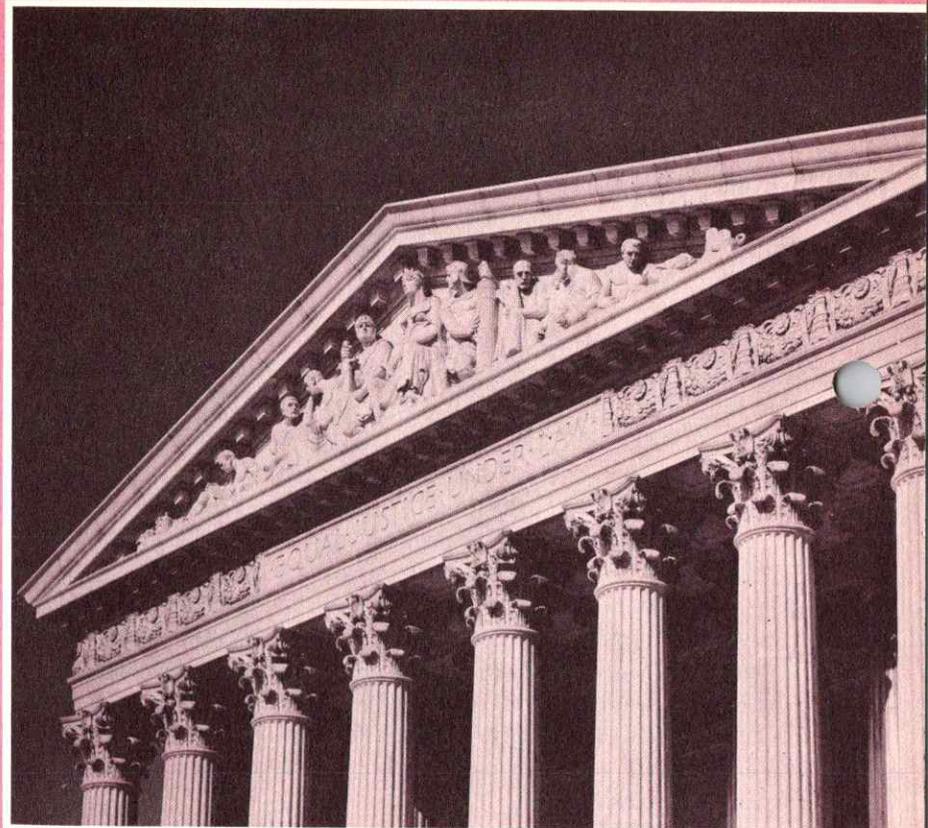

for sale. On Wednesday after the service the "UNITED YOUTH" of the Church are offering baked goods. On Friday the Young Women's Guild will have codfish cakes and other Lenten eatables for sale at 12:00 noon.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

for the entire community at Highland Methodist Church, corner Pratt Street and Highland Ave. on Friday at 8:00 P.M.

Jesus, I adore thee, stooping to the human birth, true manchild born of Mary both mother and maid.

Jesus, I adore thee, child in the manger cradle, cherished by the Virgin's care and by Joseph,
guardian of thy infancy.

Jesus, I praise thee in the perfection of thy childhood.

Jesus, I adore thee, by simple shepherds and the wondering cattle worshipped, receiving homage from the Eastern kings.

Jesus, I praise thee for every human breath thou didst breathe, true man, yet very God.

Jesus, I adore thee, alone in the wilderness with the wild beasts, ministered to by angels.

Jesus, I praise thee that thou hast borne our sorrows, in all ways tempted as we are.

Jesus, I adore thee, homeless and a wanderer, walking steadfast to Calvary.

Jesus, I praise thee for every word of teaching, for every power of healing.

Jesus, I adore thee, in the garden bowed beneath all sin, accepting all the Father's will.

Jesus, I praise thee for thy victory over sin and death, for thy restoration of humanity to God.

Jesus, I adore thee, reigning from the Tree, passing through Hades, harrowing hell.

Jesus, I praise thee for my soul restored, washed in thy precious blood, gathered into thy wounded side, made one with thee.

Jesus, I adore thee, risen triumphant, ascended Saviour, true man, true God, Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

Jesus, I adore thee, for ever dwelling in thy Church.

Jesus, lover and friend, to thee be all my love, my life, my all, for it is all thine own. Amen.

"CHRIST ON THE CROSS CAUSES CONFESSION AND PROFESSION"

Since this is the pastor's general theme for Lent, we need to think about its meaning for just a moment. Selfevidently we think about Jesus on the cross during this period. This thought awakens within us a sense of our sins and wrongs. "Confession" means, therefore, that we admit - in the light of Christ on the Cross - our sins and ask God's forgiveness, so that we might improve in our spiritual life. "Profession" means to declare one's faith, that one believes in Christ Jesus, that one has a definite opinion about Him. It means to dedicate oneself to the Lord Christ.

So Christ's love for us awakens love and a desire to live worthily of the Name "Christian."

WEDNESDAYS LENTEN SERVICE

at 7:30 P.M. will center in the thought of Peter and His Confession under the title "Frenzied Wings." We will have a brief song service at the opening of the worship period.

NEXT SUNDAY'S LEADING THOUGHT

"Self-examination Leads to Confession and Profession." The story of the Dying Thief will give us reason for a deepening of our own life.

COMMUNION SERVICES - MARCH 5TH.

at 7:45 A.M. and 10:15 A.M. At the later service new members are to be received into the fellowship of the Church by confirmation and by letters of transfer.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER'S BANQUET

February 20th at 6:30 P.M. A beautiful new film from our Visual-Aid Department of our Sunday school will be shown.

UNISON PRAYERS

Lord Jesus, Saviour of the world, in Thy holy name we join our hearts in prayer.

We remember all Thou didst endure for us, we may be sure Thou hast not forgotten. For we will not let Thee forget.

With every sin of ours, we renew the pain
Thy heart did know.

Every time we ignore Thee, forget Thee, and heed not Thy way, we revive for Thee the loneliness Thou didst feel and the spiritual blindness that broke Thy heart.

O Lord, give us Thy grace that we may not crucify Thee afresh, but, loving Thee, keep Thy commandments.

With steady faith that Thy kingdom will yet be established upon the earth, help us to hasten its coming by letting Thee work in us and through us to do Thy will. Amen.

We pray, O God, that Thou wilt fill this sacred time with meaning, and make it an oasis for the refreshment of our souls, a window cleaning for our vision, and a recharging of the batteries of our spirits. Let us have less talking and more thinking, less work and more worship, less pressure and more prayer. For if we are to be busy to pray, we are far busier than we have any right to be.

Speak to us, O Lord, and make us listen to Thy broadcasting station that never goes off the air.

Through Thy Holy Spirit, who is waiting to lead us into all truth. Amen.

A HEALTHY LENT

It is time once again to formulate a good resolution for Lent. Here is a suggestion: "I shall try, God helping me, to make myself better ground for God's sowing during this Lent."

Good ground for God's sowing is a life from which the rocks, weeds, and all other impediments to fertility have been cast out. By such rocks and weeds we mean such things as too much preoccupation with the business and the pleasure of this world; to much concern for ourselves; neglect of prayer; neglect of worship; all the things, in short, which come between God and ourselves. Lent is a time for cleaning up the ground of our souls.

At the end of a good Lent, we should be more receptive ground for the seed of the Gospel. There is no reason why this should not come to pass in us, if we resolve that it shall be so; for we have the abundance of God's grace to help us.

God give us all a good and holy Lent - that is, a healthy Lent, which will make us better ground than we have ever been before.

UNISON PRAYERS

O God, who by the mystery of Christ's uplifted cross hast drawn men everywhere in penitence unto him, and reconciled them to thee their God: Help us to hate in ourselves these same sins of selfishness and idolatry of power and lust for material things which nailed him, the Sinless One, to the tree - all sins against justice and brotherhood and love. Help us to gain something of his victorious confidence, as he faced death, silent but unafraid, quietly trusting in thy goodness and wisdom. And grant us so to share in his spirit that, united in fellowship with him, and obedient to thy will, we also may through him be partakers in newness of life, even here and now, and in the eternal Easter within Thy Kingdom. In his name Amen.

"May I be no man's enemy, and may I be the friend of that which is eternal and abides. May I never quarrel with those nearest me; and, if I do, may I be reconciled quickly. May I never devise evil against any man; if any devise evil against me, may I escape uninjured and without the need of hurting him. May I wish for all men's happiness and envy none. May I never rejoice in the ill fortune of one who has wronged me. When I have done or said what is wrong, may I never wait for the rebuke myself until I make amends. May I win no victory that harms either me or my opponent. May I never fail a friend in danger. May I respect myself. May I always keep tame that which rages within me. ## A N N O U N C E M E N T S is a very gripping way of presenting the fact that we should not choose the easy way of life as Christians. The Christian life is not merely ornamental and pretty. The cross is not to be chosen out of mere form or formality; or even as an object of worship. It is not a mere "showing off" our goodness. The cross is not something of which one might be ashamed. Taking the cross is not any kind of suffering or illness that we might have. It is the choice of the way of Christ, which may bring with it hardships and sufferings.

THE CHALLENGE OF THE CROSS

"Whoever would be my disciple, let him take up his cross and follow me."

WEDNESDAYS AHEAD

- March 8 - "Fearing Drastic Surgery." A high priest's confession; "It is better that one man die than the whole people."
March 15 - Pageant - "The Last Supper" presented by United Men's Club.
March 22 - Beautiful Colored Slides illustrating portions of the Cantata: "From Olivet to Calvary" sung by the Choirs.

SUNDAYS AHEAD

Design: The crown of thorns imposed upon the Christus symbol recalls Christ's suffering. The text is taken from the Penitential Office.

And though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us.

THUS SPEAKETH CHRIST OUR LORD*

(* Engraved on a slab in the Cathedral of Lubeck in Germany.)

Ye call Me Master and obey Me not,
Ye call Me Light and see Me not,
Ye call Me Way and walk Me not,
Ye call Me Life and desire Me not,
Ye call Me wise and follow Me not,
Ye call Me fair and love Me not,
Ye call Me rich and ask Me not,
Ye call Me eternal and seek Me not,
Ye call Me gracious and trust Me not,
Ye call Me noble and serve Me not,
Ye call Me mighty and honor Me not,
Ye call Me just and fear Me not,
If I condemn you, blame Me not.

CONSCIENCE AWAKENED

Think of the indifferent multitude at the foot of the cross, which was aroused to penitence. This is a very vital thought for Sunday, March 12th.

THE LAST SUPPER * PAGEANT

presented by members of the United Men's Club in the Wednesday service at 7:30 P.M. The apostles are represented by the men who tell briefly the life stories of disciples. This pageant is put on under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Witzke.

PRESENTATION AND EXAMINATION of the confirmands of 1961 on Sunday, March 19 at 10:00 A.M. In the early service at 8:00 A.M. we will consider the Confession of the Centurion.

COLORED SLIDES AND CANTATA

"From Olivet to Calvary" on Wednesday, March 22. This is the first time we have had this type of a service.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

is to be observed next Sunday. Bring in your offering for Church World Service.

BAKE SALE

tonight being sponsored by the GIRL SCOUTS.

Design: On Easter Day we celebrate the victory of Christ, our Paschal Lamb.

Alleluia

For he is the very Paschal Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again hath restored to us everlasting life.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

8:00 A. M. - 10:15 A. M.

PRELUDE - "Agnus Dei" Bizet

PROCESSIONAL - No. 181 (Tune 184) "O For A Thousand"

INVOCATION - RESPONSE - No. 521 "Sanctus"

CONFESSION OF SIN - ASSURANCE OF PARDON

RESPONSE - No. 489 "Glory Be To God On High"

THE INTROIT - THE COLLECT ( In unison )

O Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering and abundant in goodness and truth; enter not into judgement with thy servants, we beseech thee, but be pleased of thy great kindness to grant, that we who are now righteously afflicted and bowed down by the sense of our sins, may be refreshed and lifted up with the joy of thy salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

CALL TO PRAYER - No. 516 - SILENT PRAYER

UNISON PRAYERS

(Partially based on St. Augustine's Thoughts) Great, art Thou, O Lord, and greatly to be praised; great is Thy power, and Thy wisdom is infinite. And Thee would men praise. Thou awakest us to delight in Thy praise; for Thou hast made us for Thyself, and our heart is restless, until it finds its rest in Thee. Amen.

Help us to seek for ourselves, for our true self. If we seek we shall find - but great marvel we will not find ourselves alone, but we will find God, or when we find ourselves, we will find ourselves in God. Amen.

Oh, that I might rest in Thee, O Lord. Come into my heart and live in it, that I may forget my ills and embrace Thee, the sole good! O what am I to Thee, that Thou dost demand my love, and that Thou dost give Thyself for me on the Cross. Show me, O Lord, how much Thou dost mean to me. Say to my soul, I am your salvation. So speak, that I may hear. So open my eyes, that I may see. So enter my heart and will that I might be controlled fully by Thee, knowing that that is best for me.

In this spirit strengthen me in devotion to Thee and in service of my fellowmen. In Jesus' Name. Amen

PERSONAL PRAYERS

Lord Jesus, Thou knowest what temptation is like.
Thou knowest how strongly the wrong thing fascin-ates me, and how much the forbidden thing attracts me. Lord Jesus, help me not to fall.

Help me to remember my own self-respect, and to remember that I cannot do a thing like this.
Help me to think of those who love me, and to know that I dare not bring disappointment and heartbreak to them.

Help me to remember the unseen cloud of witnesses who compass me about, and to know that I cannot grieve those who have passed on, but who are for ever near.

Help me to remember Thy presence, and in Thy presence to find my safety. This I ask for Thy love's sake. Amen.

O God, Thou knowest that today I must make a decision which is going to affect my whole life.
Help me to choose the right way. Grant me Thy guidance, and with it grant me the humble obedience to accept it. Help me not to choose what I want to do, but what Thou dost wish me to do. Grant that I may not be swayed by fear or by hope of gain, by selfish love of ease or comfort or by personal ambition, by the desire to escape or the longing for prestige. Help me today in humble obedience to say to Thee: "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do:"
and then to await Thy guidance, and to accept Thy leading. Hear this my prayer, and send me an answer so clear that I cannot mistake it. This I ask for Thy love's sake. Amen.

A N N O U N C E M E N T S

THANKS

to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Witzke and all members of United Men's Club who helped with the presentation of the Pageant. This inspiring event brings before us not only the historic scene, but a call to re-dedication by coming to the Lord's Supper at every opportunity.

NEXT WEDNESDAY SERVICE - 7:30 P.M. - COLORED PICTURES illustrate the beautiful Cantata "From Olivet to Calvary" as is sung by the Choirs.

PATRONIZE THE BAKE SALE AFTER THE SERVICE TONIGHT SPONSORED BY THE YOUNG WOMEN'S GUILD. REMEMBER OUR FRIDAY SALES OF LENTEN FOODS CONTINUES.

CONFIRMANDS

will be in the foreground of our Prayers and our Thinking for the next few weeks.

SUNDAY - MARCH 19 - Presentation and Examination of Confirmands at 10:00 Service.

We have tried to lay into minds and hearts the great Christian truths and we need to review these.

SUNDAY - MARCH 26 - PALM SUNDAY - Confirmation Service at 10:00 A. M. Early Service at 8:00 A.M. Palms will be distributed at both services in accord with our custom of last few years.

BE SURE TO KEEP IN MIND THE HOLY WEEK SERVICES
WEDNESDAY - MARCH 29 - Preparatory Service for Holy Communion. Service at 7:30 P.M.

MAUNDY THURSDAY - MARCH 30 - Communion Service 7:30 P.M.

GOOD FRIDAY - MARCH 31 - 9:00 A.M. English Communion Service. 7:30 P.M. Communion Service.

EASTER - APRIL 2 - 6:00 A.M. Sunrise Communion Service. 10:00 A.M. Communion Service.

Design: The chalice and wafer are symbols of the Holy Communion which Christ instituted. The vine recalls Christ words in John 15:5. The text is from Psalm 116:12.

I will receive the cup of salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord.

Amen.

KEEP ME DEDICATED, LORD

Here is my heart: I lay it upon Your altar, today!

Burn out all the dross and evil, O God,

And make me clean within.

You are the only One who can cleanse my soul;

Sometimes I try, in my own strength,

But You know that I can never cleanse myself.

More and more I realize

That You are my purity—my righteousness.

So keep my heart on Your altar, O God:

Let it stay there every hour of every day!

Let every part of me stay there—

My affection, my emotions,

My mind, and all my thoughts,

My body, and all its strength;

Let all that is within me glorify Your name.

I commit myself entirely to You, O God:

I trust Your power and Your faithfulness to keep me dedicated.

And I praise Your holy name

That I can turn this matter over to You.

I rejoice in Your faithfulness;

I delight in Your goodness; my joy is in Thee!

Help me, then, O Loving Father,

To rest in Your faithfulness and Your love,

That I may abide in Your peace—in YOUR power—

And in YOUR dedication, Amen.

God be merciful to me a sinner.
Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness, and cleanse me from my sin.
Hide Thy face from my sins, and blot out all my misdeeds.
Cast me not away from Thy presence; take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, have mercy upon me.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon me.
Have pity on me, O Lord Jesus Christ, for Thou didst die for me.

PRAYER FOR MAUNDY THURSDAY

Lord Jesus Christ, Who when Thou wast able to institute Thy Holy Sacrament at the Last Supper, didst wash the feet of the Apostles, and teach us by Thy example the grace of humility: cleanse us, we beseech Thee, from all stain of sin, that we may be worthy partakers of Thy holy mysteries; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen

PRAYER FOR GOOD FRIDAY

Saviour, who in human flesh didst conquer tears by crying, pain by suffering, death by dying, we, thy servants gather before the Cross to commemorate thy passion and to contemplate anew the wonder of thy compassionate love. As we listen to thy gracious words uttered with dying lips, illumine our souls that we may know the truth, melt our hearts that we may hate our sins, nerve our wills that we may do thy bidding; to the glory of thy name and our own eternal gain.

Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER No. 516

OUR EASTER SUNDAY PRAYER

Eternal God, before whom the morning stars first sang together, and who holdest in thy hands the destiny of every living thing, we worship thee. Thanks be to thee for the note of victory that fills our souls today! Thanks to thee for our living Lord over whom death had no dominion! For the rich heritage of faith that life is ever lord of death, and that love can never lose its own, we thank thee. Strengthen our believing. Confirm our confidence in thee and life eternal.

Replenish with new hope all who are discouraged about the world, who find faith in the ultimate victory of righteousness difficult. So often might triumphs over right, and the good is undone by evil that, like our Master on His Cross we cry, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" O thou to whom a thousand years are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night, speak to us and refresh our souls with a new hope. Lift our vision above the immediate; illumine for us that eternal purpose which thou didst purpose in Christ. Say to us this Easter day that no Calvary can finally defeat Christ.

To that end may the living Christ be not only in our creed but in our experience. Let not Easter day represent to us only an historic victory; may it mean a present triumph in our souls—the living Christ our inspiration and our strength, so that we live, and yet not we, but Christ lives in us, the hope of glory. In that sustaining faith may we, too, like our Master, overcome the world.

We pray in the name of Christ. Amen.

THE AGONY AND TRIUMPH OF EASTER

In the grave they laid Him, Love whom men had slain, Thinking that never He would wake again,
Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen:

Love is come again,
Like wheat that springeth green.

Forth He came at Easter, like the risen grain,
He that for three days in the grave had lain,
Quick from the dead my risen Lord is seen;

Love is come again,
Like wheat that springeth green.

RESPONSIVE SCRIPTURE READING

Leader - Mr. Herman Berends

LEADER: God said unto David, Thou shalt not build a house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood. And of all my sons, (for the Lord hath given me many sons), he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

CONGREGATION: And He said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

LEADER: Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

CONGREGATION: And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts; if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him he will cast thee off for ever.

LEADER: Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat.

CONGREGATION: And David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord."

LEADER: And Solomon determined to build a house for the name of the Lord and a house for his kingdom.

CONGREGATION: And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

LEADER: Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

CONGREGATION: And now I have sent a cunning man, endowed with understanding, of Hiram my father's.

OUR UNISON PRAYER OF THANKS—Led after Pastoral Prayer by the Rev. Timothy Lehmann, D.D.

O God, our Father, God of might who dost rule over all, God of love and mercy, bless us and help us as we bow before Thee in worship today. We are deeply grateful for Thyself, O Lord Christ, the Living One. Thou hast given Thyself for us. Thou hast revealed to us the life we should live. We appreciate the awakening and guidance of us, O Holy Spirit. On this day we are grateful to Thee for giving us the opportunity to work in Thy Church. We confess our failures and sins and ask forgiveness. We are thankful for our Church Building, for the privilege Thou hast given us to erect it, to dedicate it to Thee, to work for Thee, to give of our gifts and of ourselves. While our material debt is paid, yet the Debt we still Owe is great. We owe a debt to the past; a debt to the future; and a debt to the present. We pray Thy blessings upon our fellowship today. Unite us in service and love for one another. Help us to serve faithfully the people of the community. May our thoughts and prayers and gifts reach out to people of other lands, to those who do not know the Gospel. May we see our responsibility and our privilege in the enlargement of our hearts for Thy Kingdom in all the world. Bless us in the worship of this hour and bless Thy people everywhere. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

SERVICE OF MORTGAGE BURNING

So let the document which we are to burn represent the task of building and paying for this church, or that part which we could not care for on a cash basis at the time. Let the burning of the papers symbolize the doing of the task, paying for the property, providing a temple for the worship of God. So what transpires now represents years of effort, sacrifice, loyalty and loving service. It represents also the dedication to future endeavors of Spiritual Building in a deeper sense.

It is in the spirit of gratitude toward our Heavenly Father, in the spirit of appreciation of services rendered by many; in the spirit of comradeship and as a Church Family and in the spirit of dedication anew to the practice of Christian stewardship and to lives that will demonstrate the spirit of Jesus; that we now burn the mortgage.

REPRESENTATIVES of all the Organizations of the Church and the Congregation will now come forward to the Chancel to burn the mortgage as called by Mr. J. Albert Fader, President of the Church.

Lord, we thank thee for all the wisdom of the past; for the devoted labors of sages and thinkers who have prized truth above all things; for the discipline of clear thinking, and the dissipation of confusion and prejudice. Grant us, we pray thee, the love of truth for Christ's sake; teach us to care more for truth than for systems, or for skill in debate; and give us the grace and patience to keep open those questions which worldly wisdom cannot answer. In Christ, Amen

We would worship God with minds transformed by his renewing:

That we lack not honesty in doubts and perplexity.

That we lack not accuracy in scholarship and research.

That we may collaborate with others in the search for truth, and may never for popularity or riches turn aside from our task.

We would worship God in proving what is his will, in doing what is good and acceptable and perfect in his sight:

That we may bring all our studies under the good hand of God.

That we may see all things in relation to God, the giver of all truth.

That we may not rest in contemplation of the truth, but may perform it.

That we may bring all thoughts and imaginations into captivity to Christ. Amen.

Education for Suffering

WE SPEAK glibly of education for leadership. Christ never called leaders; He issued a call for disciples, for followers. And He prescribed that a follower should be like his Master.

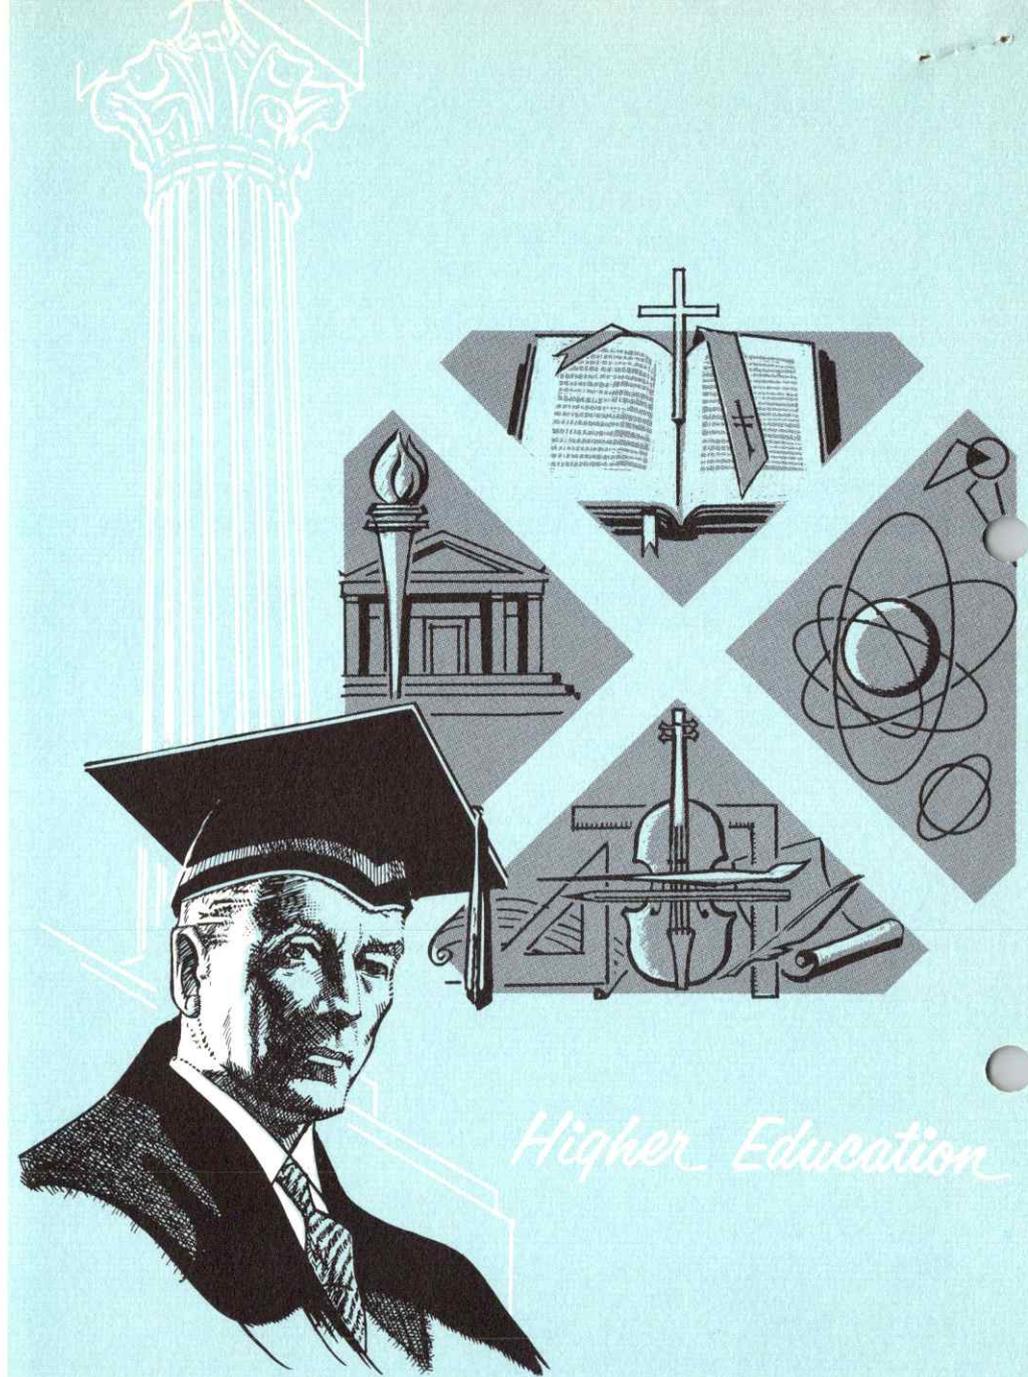

Jesus, the great Master, is the suffering Servant. He is the Christ of the cross. He came to earth for the precise purpose of suffering. He calls His disciples to the role of suffering.

We suffer, to be sure. We suffer when the stockmarket dips, or when the wrong party wins the election. We suffer when dictators threaten our peace and prosperity. We suffer when the diagnosis is cancer.

But these sufferings are all-men's sufferings. The disciple must suffer as Jesus suffered. When He was wronged He suffered because the wrongdoers, whom He loved, were damaging their souls. When He was crucified He suffered because His crucifiers, whom He loved and for whom He was dying, failed to understand that the Kingdom was theirs. When He was hated and rejected and reviled, His sufferings were not pity for Himself but an infinite pity for those whose passions blinded them from the truth.

When a son strikes his mother, the mother's sorrow is not the sting in her cheek but the great ache in her heart for her son. The hurt in the heart of God is like that, the eloquent language of His love for us.

Many of our fine young men and women will be tomorrow's leaders. But the evidence of the church's success in their education will lie in their discipleship—in the love they have for God and man—in their role as servants—in their capacity for high suffering.

Together let us answer God Who seeks to make us whole;

United let us now respond to His divine control.

Not by ourselves can we achieve the oneness we would claim,

But God Himself will give us strength to answer
in Christ's Name.
Together let us praise our God - Who by His love provides
The vast inheritance of faith - that nourishes and guides;
Come thank Him for each gift in life - enriching human days,
And for the act of God in Christ, now let us
join in praise.
Together let us serve the Lord - and His eternal cause;
As one we dedicate ourselves - to labor for His laws.
Committed to His holy Church - We venture to fulfill Through bonds of sacred fellowship - Our God's

We Are Shepherds All

EVERYONE is somebody's hero. Even a debased person will have some unsuspecting urchin imitating him. No one can escape the terrifying responsibility of being a shepherd of the sheep. No man lives to himself alone.

There are good shepherds and bad. The sheep may be led to green pastures and still waters or be beguiled into the desert to die.

Jesus is the great, good Shepherd. We are to be His under-shepherds. We may be skillful or clumsy, faithful or faithless, good or evil. We may love the sheep or despise them. But we cannot escape the role.

When Jesus put Peter to the test, He did not quiz him on his aptitudes or skills. He asked but one question, "Lovest thou me?" Three times He asked it, and three times Peter replied, "Thou knowest that I love thee."

And Jesus commissioned him, "Feed my sheep."

The world does not want for skills. We have enough knowledge in psychology, physiology and technology to make a veritable heaven on earth—if our skills are matched with love. The hand of love, though clumsy and inept, will do more good for the world than many hands of lust and greed, however clever and skilled.

To be captured by the great Shepherd of love, Jesus our Lord, remains the towering credential—if we are to be guides for the generations that follow us. The wisdom that comes from love is the wisdom of the ages.

All are eligible, for Jesus died for all, and His great heart of love is open to all. To let His love into our hearts will give us the Shepherd's heart and the Shepherd's wisdom.

I have to live with myself and so

I want to be fit for myself to know.

I want to be able as days go by Always to look myself straight in the eye.

I don't want to stand, with the setting sun,

And hate myself for the things I've done.

I want to go with my head erect,

I want to deserve all men's respect;
But here in the struggle for fame and self,
I want to be able to like myself.
I don't want to look at myself and know
That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.
I can never hide myself from me,
I see what others may never see;
I can never fool myself, and so Whatever happens I want to be Self-respecting and conscience free.

PRAYER:

O God, unto Whom all hearts are open and from Whom no secrets are hid, keep me from deceit.
Help me to know myself as Thou dost know me.
The heart is deceitful above all things; keep me from fooling myself. Help me to guard my heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life. May my words be true, my act-

The Word of Truth

JESUS said, "I am . . . the truth." It is in Him, the living Word, that we find the clue to all truth. His message of salvation is the key to understanding both life and death. And His message centers in the cross.

Men die. They struggle to live, but they die. They protest the grim reaper, but they die.

The Lord of lords died too. He neither protested nor resisted. He had chosen to die—for the sins of the world. The cross belonged neither to Pilate nor to Caiaphas. The cross was His own.

It was in the long plan of God that His only Son would redeem the world. Why it had to be a cross remains a mystery. But there was no one else and there was no other way. Man could die but man could not by his death save himself from his sin and guilt. Only the Son of God could die and save.

The sneering mob that Friday cried, "If you are the Christ, save yourself." Failing to move Him, they taunted Him, "He saved others, himself he cannot save." And this cry of derision became a prophetic insight. For in saving us, He could not escape the cross and death. This was payment for our sins, redemption from guilt and shame, victory over death.

Can we hear this Word, unchanged? Do we pass this cross by, unmoved? Do we face this death of Christ as if we were attending some theater drama? Is it as if we were at the movies and needed not weep over the hero's death, because we knew all along that when the cameras were done with him, he went home to supper? Christ died for you and me because He loved us and wanted us, our sins forgiven, to share an imperishable Kingdom with Him. This is His Word to us!

Sanctify us, O LORD,
in thy truth:
thy word is truth

We remember Thee as the Provider and Sustainer of all life, Lord of the fruitful branch and Pruner of all that gives promise of no fruit. We remember Thee as the One who beyond all planting and watering giveth the increase. Bless, we pray Thee, all who prepare the good earth for the planting, who sow beside all waters, who commit to Thee the labors of their minds and hands.

Grant the warmth of Thy sun, the nurture of wind and rain to the end that all the seed promise of good growth may be fulfilled in Thee.

We remember Thee in all Thy waiting patience. Thou dost not uproot the evil. Thou dost let it grow with the good until the time of harvest. Thou alone dost separate the wheat from the chaff; gathering in the wheat, giving to the winds the chaff. Even so, Lord, grant us willingness to wait in hope and to serve in steadfast confidence. Thine be the kingdom and the glory and the power in the church both now and evermore, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Heavenly Father, we give thee thanks for sending thy Son into the world for our redemption; and that by his death and resurrection and ascension into heaven He has opened unto us the gates of everlasting life and given us firm hope of the coming of thy kingdom in the world. Let our minds and hearts be fixed upon Him there with thee on thy throne as we worship together now, and as we go out to the living of our daily life. In His ascended life help us to see the promise of our own when our work here is done, and in the light of it to serve thee faithfully as He did in the days of His flesh. Amen.

Almighty and ever blessed God, our Father, we would bow before thee in the sacredness of this hour to praise and magnify thy great and holy name. We recognize thee as the only true God, ever righteous, ever holy, and the one from whose presence we cannot be hid. As we draw nigh unto thee, deeply conscious of our failings and sins, we praise thee for thine unfailing mercy toward us.

Our hearts are filled with gratitude that thou art the giver of every good and perfect gift. In so many ways we see the fulness of thy love - the food we eat, the air we breathe, the health we enjoy, the homes in which we live. We thank thee for our family circles, our brothers and sisters, our parents, our children, and for all who have brought gladness to our hearts. Especially do we thank thee that through Christ thy Son thou hast called us to be members of thy spiritual family and that as thy children we may worship thee and do thy work. We praise thee for the countless times thou hast spoken to us here and for the sense of union that we have felt with thee as we have shared in the work of thy kingdom. Amen.

O thou who art the Father of all mankind, whose heart dost yearn over all the children of men, we commit unto thy perfect keeping those who are dear to us but are beyond our care. We pray also for those throughout the earth whom we do not know but who are known and dearly loved by thee. May we remember that their needs are just as real as our own. May thy gracious blessing rest upon them all - the poor, the hungry, the homeless, the lonely, the sad, those who are unemployed, those who endure family tensions, those whose hearts long for a lost loved one, those who have never heard the gospel. Lay upon our hearts those of this number to whom we should minister, and teach us how we may serve them and thus serve thee. Amen.

Holy Spirit of God, who at Pentecost didst descend with power upon Christ's disciples and didst send them out to preach the Gospel and to found the Church, inspire us also to sustain what they began. O Most High, mean to us what thou didst mean to them: the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. Enrich our souls with that threefold experience, that thou mayest be to us the Almighty Creator, the Saving Character, the Indwelling Comforter. Amen.

We thank thee for the heritage which is ours in Christ, and for the great tradition that thy Church has handed down to us. Make us worthy of our inheritance. Let us not because of any infidelity or lack of character hurt it by our mishandling, or rob our children of its full possession. We pray for another Pentecost, another outpouring of thy Spirit on thy Church. For still the peoples of the earth wander like sheep without a shepherd. Still earthly riches leave them destitute in soul, and by the very things their ingenious minds invent their spirits are wounded and the hopes of mankind are threatened. Still tyranny oppresses multitudes, the liberty of human souls is taken from them, the hopes of the young are destroyed, and the Spirit and teaching of Christ are trampled underfoot. O God, awaken thy Church. Raise up leaders, prophets in thy pulpits, teachers in the schools, statesmen in seats of government, and enlighten and inspire thy Church throughout the world. Amen.

We ask thy blessing, our Father, on all true lovers. We thank thee for the revealing power of love which divines in the one beloved the mystic beauty and glory of humanity, overcoming the selfishness of youth by the passion of self-surrender. We pray thee to make their love strong and holy, that no misunderstanding may fray the bond, and no gray disenchantment of the years may have the power to quench the heavenly light that now glows in them. May they reverence themselves and drink the cup of joy with awe. In Christ. Amen

O keep us from degrading or belittling the personalities of others. Help us to shun dreams and thoughts and acts which will degrade us and fill our souls with all sorts of darkness and despair. In our social and personal life may we ever keep foremost the value of integrity and respect and character.

And as we differ and grow impatient with others, may we not in our revolt give ourselves over to perilous recklessness. But rather devote our talents and energies to making better character and a better world. This we ask in the name of him who taught us to live abundantly and joyously and helpfully. Amen.

Our gracious, heavenly Father, who dost enlighten the minds that seek Thee, inspire the hearts that love Thee, and strengthen the hands of all those who serve Thee: let Thy special blessing be upon this gathering of Thy people, met together in this hour of achievement to recognise and honor these, Thy young sons and daughters. We acknowledge Thee to be the Lord of all life, the Source of all truth, the Fountain of all goodness; and so we look to Thee now for that inspiration which Thou alone canst give. Amen.

We thank Thee, O God, for this blessed land of liberty; its noble history as our heritage, and its place of material and spiritual power as our possession and our trust. We rejoice especially in our free and unfettered institutions, and pray that they may ever be preserved. Bless Thou our schools and those who share in their ministry to our common life. We thank Thee for all those who have sought and found the truth, and laid it as a treasure in our hands. May we understand Thy glorious provision, even as Thou hast said: "Ye shall know the Truth; and the Truth shall make you free." Amen.

We lift our prayer in earnest petition for all: what Thou dost strengthen is strong indeed; and what Thou dost inspire is established forever. Draw us into the fellowship of that company who, in every age, have gone forth in the procession of Thy faithful servants. Give us wide and beckoning horizons, resolute wills, enduring strengths and unfaltering faith. In the Name of Christ, Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GRADUATES

We are happy to set aside a service to recognize those who have completed a certain phase of their education. We have among our young people this year some who are graduating from the University of Maryland, from Yale University, from Mc Donough, and the various High schools of our city. We need to continue to learn wherever we are, whatever we are doing. We are never to old to learn.

THANKS TO ONE AND ALL

who prepared for and took part in the Strawberry Festival and Variety Show this past week. It is always interesting to see the amateur talents revealed in our young people. We need more members for our CHOIRS. How about it young people? How about it older people?

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICE

next Sunday. The theme for the day will be followed through in both services. But in the latter service the children and young people will take part in stressing the theme: "Follow The Leader - Jesus." Sunday school will begin at 9:30 A.M. and then the members of the Sunday school will come into church service at 10:45 A.M.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

will begin on Monday, June 19 at 9:00 A.M. We will have this informal and interesting school from 9:00 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. every day, Monday through Friday for two weeks. Our theme this summer is "Jesus Our Savior." Bible stories, pictures, hand work, singing and other features will be a part of the school.

FATHERS DAY SERVICE

on Sunday, June 18. The theme will be taken from a great Scripture passage: "Turn the Hearts of the Fathers to the Children."

READY TO RECEIVE NEW MEMBERS

We have several applicants. If there are others, please let us know, so that we might make arrangements.

CHURCH COUNCIL MEETING

on Tuesday, June 6th at 8:00 P.M.

Came Thy voice in summons - Not to be put by:
Nor in toil nor sorrow, Weakness nor dismay,
Need we ever falter, Art not Thou our Stay?
As a follower of Christ, I will endeavor so to live and serve that God's kingdom may come and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven. I will do my best to find and fit myself for that form of life-work wherein I can do the most to accomplish this end. Amen.

Heavenly Father, Thou knowest I desire to do my best to do my duty now and always. Give me an open mind to hear Thy call, and a willing heart to respond. May I be able through Thee both to do and to dare. Keep me from faltering or turning aside from any task Thou hast given me. May I be strong, having on the whole armor of God, and on every battlefield may I acquit myself like a true

ANNOUNCEMENTS

APPRECIATION is extended to the Children's Day Committee and all the members of the Sunday school and Choirs, who were willing to take part in the service. More and more we should consider it a privilege to serve in the various aspects of the work in the Church. We need to realize the importance of our work with the Children and Young People.

FATHER'S DAY SERVICES

next Sunday. Fathers and Sons will take part in both services. The theme for the Day is of utmost importance for our day and time: "Turn the Hearts of the Fathers to the Children." Let families come out and sit together in the Church.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

begins on Monday, June 19 at 9:00 A.M. This informal and interesting school will continue from 9:00 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. from Monday through Friday for two weeks. Our subject for the school is: "Jesus Our Savior." We are especially anxious to have children of the confirmation age attend, but the invitation goes to the ages 5 to 14. Bible stories, pictures, handwork, singing and other features will be part of the program. Parents, see to it that your children attend.

ADULT CLASS MEMBERS

will be received into the Church on Sunday, June 25th at the 10:15 A.M. service. We will also have our June Communion service on this Sunday in the later service. We have received a number of letters of transfer and if there are others who wish to join our fellowship we would be happy to welcome them.

DO NOT TAKE VACATION

from the worship of God and from Church attendance during the summer months. Attend Church somewhere. Be faithful to your Lord God, as He is to you. We need prayers during this critical time in the history of the world and the Church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Wednesday, July 19th at Maryland Beach. Plan to attend this annual affair.

*LET the children come to me,
and do not hinder them;
for to such belongs
the kingdom of God.*

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who settest

the solitary in families; We commend to thy continual care the homes in which thy people dwell. Put far from them, we beseech thee, every root of bitterness, the desire of vain-glory, and the pride of life. Fill them with faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness. Knit together in constant affection those who, in holy wedlock, have been made one flesh; turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to the fathers; and so enkindle fervent charity among us all, that we be evermore kindly affectioned with brotherly love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, we pray thee that our young people who are growing in independence, may be ready to be guided by thee. May they trust thee who art the truth, and put themselves in thy hands who art the way and the life. Teach them what to aim for, what to believe and what to do, so that their lives may be built on the everlasting verities. Amen.

TEN LAMPS TO LIGHT MY SON'S - MY DAUGHTER'S PATH

(Adapted from Pastor Herbert E. Richards)

1. Approach your calling with diligence and patience and be worthy of regard to your fellowmen.
2. Learn to laugh when confused and setbacks come. Gloom is but a burden added to your life.
3. Respect your body, for it is temple of your soul.
4. Be natural. Do not try to be someone else. Follow example of the great.
5. Be careful in money matters. Spend only money which is yours. Keep your expenses within your income.
6. Do not worry about tomorrow, for anxiety poisons soul.
7. Meet life and GOD every day in the people you meet.
8. Seek Service. Happiness comes only in fruitful endeavor and sacrificial living.
9. Show courage in face of temptation. Never let anyone tell you that you are "chicken" when it comes to do wrong.
10. Be faithful! Be faithful to all who trust you, above all to your God and Lord Jesus Christ and the Church.

HOLY COMMUNION AND RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS next Sunday in the later service at 10:15 A.M. The theme for this service is: "A Prayer For Guidance." With this Sunday the pastor will begin a series of Summer sermons on "Prayer - Psalms." For Patriotic Service on July 2 we will think of "Prayer - Psalm for the Nation."

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL begins tomorrow and will continue daily Monday through Friday from 9:00 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. Come! Children from the ages of five to fourteen are especially urged to come. Those of confirmation age should attend. We meet in the Friendship Hall for these interesting days.
