

The Second Congregational Meeting of the year was held on June 7, 1954, Fred Gross presiding. The meeting was ^{ed}open with prayer by Rev. Lehmann.

OLD BUSINESS

It was reported that Leona Lebrun, Building Committee member representing the Choir, was replaced by Mr. Hoffmann.

Fred Gross reported Parsonage painted and repaired, Organ completely rebuilt, and Locks for Sunday School doors have been obtained.

NEW BUSINESS

Al. Fader reported Sunday School windows would be painted during the summer. Fred Gross reported on what Building Committee has accomplished to date. All in attendance at the congregational meeting was invited to stay after the close of the meeting and examine the four sets of preliminary plans which were being considered.

Rev. Lehmann reported, that Dr. Timothy Lehmann would be with us during August, while he was on vacation. Also that an assistant, Mr. Donald Ely, would be with us for six weeks. Rev. Lehmann said that the Potomac Synod meeting at Hood College would be held June 9-12, 1954, and that one of the important questions to be brought up would be for the election of a full time President for the Synod. That this would involve an expenditure of about 12,000 to 15,000 dollars a year to the synod, ^{or} and about 50 cents per head additional expense to the church. After much discussion a Motion was made by Ed. Myers and Seconded by Bill Single that Rev. Lehmann and our delegate to the synod meeting be directed to vote No on the question of electing a full time President of the Synod.
