

Kenneth Lumpkin Honored At City

Kenneth Lumpkin, 3905 Hudson St., a Boy Scout member of Troop 19, received his Eagle Rank Badge of Scoutdom on March 22 at City Hospitals. He was hurt in an accident at school, in which his nose was broken.

Kenneth is a member of the troop which meets at the United Evangelical Church, East Ave. and Dillon St., where it is sponsored by the Men's Club. Howard Jenkins is Scoutmaster.

Also receiving Eagle Rank awards were Vernon Luckhardt, age 14, and Jack Luckhardt, age 18, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Luckhardt, 723 S. Ellwood Ave. Mr. Luckhardt is a member of the church Boy Scout committee.

The awards were made on the occasion of Parents' Night. Four boys received their Star rank and nine were recipients of Tenderfoot pins.

Rev. Titus Lehmann is pastor of United Evangelical Church.
