Dear Mr. Mueller:

I just want to write a short note to you and the members of the board of the German United Evangelical Church to let you know that I have arrived safely in St. Louis. After leaving Baltimore I spent a few days in New York City seeing the sights in the world's largest town. Then I headed westward. I stopped off for several days at Elyria, Ohio in the home of my uncle. And finally, after wandering about for about a week I arrived again in St. Louis.

It is too late to return to the Seminary this year any more since the term ends in just a few more weeks. But next Fall I'll be ready to return and again take up my studies. I'll have a world of experience in the ministry behind me to help me along. At present I have no definite plans for the summer. There is a chance that I may spend it working on a farm.

I want to thank you and the rest of the members of the board for the kind way in which you treated me while I was serving your pulpit. I came to Baltimore a green student alone in a strange city but you all soon made me feel right at home. You would oblige me by extending my greetings to Rev. Lehmann and the rest of the board.

Sincerely yours,
