1. LADIES ORGANIZATION 2012 REPORT

The Ladies Organization has 18 members. Most meetings have 8 to 12 members attending. During the year we had two Bus Trips to Faith UCC in Frederick, Maryland for their Oyster, Ham & Turkey Luncheon. One Bus Trip in November was cancelled because of the perfect Storm. All Monies were returned to our members.

Our charity donation from Miss Piggy which we collected ($100.00) was given to a family involved in the fire on Bouldin Street the first of 2012. . Our monthly meetings included brown bag lunches and Pizza Party , Mother's Day Luncheon. We also included during the year a trip to Carsons's Creekside and a trip to Sue Island Grill ( on both trips we paid our own way) .Our Ladies also had their Christmas Luncheon at the Toby's Dinner Theatre. We saw the show "Sound of Music" and also a terrific luncheon. . Our Ladies donated $1,000.00 to the Church Air Conditioning Fund plus other donations for Memorials & the Lily and Poinsettia Fund. $225.00. For the Octoberfest a few of our ladies had a table where we sold items. This table netted us about $190.00 which we donated to the Fundraising Group.

If you are free on the first Wednesday of the month please join our group at 12 noon.

Hope to see some new members.

Sincerely,

Arlene Pate

Ladies Organization, U.E.C.

The Ladies have been busy during the year. We had three luncheons meetings , a Strawberry festival, and three trips. The luncheon's included a St. Patrick's day Luncheon , Turkey luncheon., and Chicken Luncheon. . We had two bus trips to Faith United Church in Frederick for their Oyster, Ham & Turkey Dinner. We also enjoyed attending Toby's Dinner Theatre for their show, Christmas Carol. Donations this year were sent to American Cancer and also Donations to Lily Fund and the Pointsettia Fund here at United. With only 20 ladies in our group we were also able to give our yearly donation to the Church. We especially enjoyed a picnic at Ursula's House during the summer. During the past year we enjoyed having members of the congregation join us for lunch at Hazelwood Inn, Caddy Shack Restaurant ,and Riverwatch Restaurant where we had our Christmas Luncheon.

Attn: Merritt Manor Branch

Dear Sir:

During the first month of 2011 (January) our organization decided to close our account with Merritt Manor. Three of our ladies who sign the checks made two visits to Merritt Manor and also to Highlandtown Branches.

We did the paperwork to close Account # 970058334 and removed our savings. It is now September, 2011 and we are still receiving 00 Balance statements. WE have requested that these statements be stopped because the account was closed.

Again today September 6, 2011 we called and were told that the account is open and someone needs to come in to close it. It is our opinion that we made two trips understanding that this account was closed. We request in writing that this account be closed and we no longer receive statements.

Hoping that you handle this without us returning to talk to someone in you branch again.

Sincerely,

Arlene M. Pate
President Ladies Org. UUCP

1. LADIES ORGANIZATION 2012 REPORT

The Ladies Organization has 18 members. Most meetings have 8 to 12 members attending. During the year we had two Bus Trips to Faith UCC in Frederick, Maryland for their Oyster, Ham & Turkey Luncheon. One Bus Trip in November was cancelled because of the perfect Storm. All Monies were returned to our members.

Our charity donation from Miss Piggy which we collected ($100.00) was given to a family involved in the fire on Bouldin Street the first of 2012. . Our monthly meetings included brown bag lunches and Pizza Party , Mother's Day Luncheon. We also included during the year a trip to Carsons's Creekside and a trip to Sue Island Grill ( on both trips we paid our own way) .Our Ladies also had their Christmas Luncheon at the Toby's Dinner Theatre. We saw the show "Sound of Music" and also a terrific luncheon. . Our Ladies donated $1,000.00 to the Church Air Conditioning Fund plus other donations for Memorials & the Lily and Poinsettia Fund. $225.00. For the Octoberfest a few of our ladies had a table where we sold items. This table Netted us about $190.00 which we donated to the Fundraising Group.

If you are free on the first Wednesday of the month please join our group at 12 noon.

Hope to see some new members.

Sincerely,

Arlene Pate
