

Blessed are the poor in spirit
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

*Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they shall be satisfied.*

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

*Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness'
sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.*

Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

*Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven,
for so men persecuted the prophets who were before you.*

CALL TO PRAYER No. 516 - SILENT PRAYER

PRAYER-THOUGHTS (Adapted from "Public Prayers"
by Fosdick)

Eternal Spirit, who out of the mysterious womb
of nature hast created us, spirits also, with minds to see truth, hearts to love beauty, and wills to choose righteousness, we worship Thee.
As fire ascending seeks the sun, so seek we our parent source. As rivers flowing into the sea are but the sea itself that has fallen in rain
upon the mountains, so have we come from Thee

and go unto Thee. O God, in whom we live and move and have our being, our source and goal, we worship Thee. Breathe into our hearts, Spirit of the living God, good will and generosity. May we gather up into our sincere intercession all the nations, creeds, and races of mankind. Break down our prejudices. Let pettiness die as Thy love rises in our souls. May we care afresh what happens to mankind. So re-create our spirits into the likeness of Thy Son that all this week we may be considerate, tolerant, generous and kind. We commit unto Thy care our nation. For leaders who in days past thou hast raised up to be our guides, blessed be Thy name! Make us worthy of the sacrifice that has been built into the foundations of the commonwealth. Save us from our own folly, and from all national idolatry that puts another god on Thy throne. From unrighteousness, and lawlessness, collapse of personal character and public integrity, good Lord, deliver us. Let pure religion, sound intelligence, and uprightness of life be the blessing of This People. Grant us Thy Peace. Amen

WELCOME

to Dr. R. Frankenfeld in our Pulpit on this Exchange Sunday. We are happy to have the pastor of St. Matthew's Church with us. May he be blessed as he with his family begins the work in Baltimore.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us on this Sunday. Your Pastor has the privilege of preaching at his old Church, St. John's, this morning.

TEACHING TO REACH FOR CHRIST

is a follow-up of this exchange of pastors. At 8:00 P. M. there will be a meeting of the East Side Churches, tomorrow night, in our own Church in the "Upper Room." Anyone interested is asked to come. Pastor L. Suedmeyer will be the leader of this meeting. We are interested in reaching out to persuade people to give themselves to Christ. Share Christ with others.

ADULT TEACHER TRAINING CLASS

is beginning its session in the Boy Scout Room of the Fellowship Hall. This Class meets with the training class for a period of about eight weeks. Some very interesting lessons are being discussed. These meetings will be of help to young parents, for it will help to understanding the children better.

POINTING TOWARD LENT

On Ash Wednesday, March 2, our services begin at 7:30 P. M. We will open with a dramatic colored movie: "The Power of the Resurrection." Our theme for Lent is "Christ's Power for a Power Age." You will get your letter this week. YOU plan to attend.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS BANQUET

on Tuesday, 6:30 P. M. This is not only a period of fellowship but also inspiration and helpfulness.

WANTED

more Boy Scouts or young boys willing to go through this fine work. Boys, let us know if interested.

UNITED MEN'S CLUB

meets Wednesday, February 24, 8:00 P. M. Men, come early for the recreation period in the Auditorium.
