No committee chairman appointed as yet.

SPEAKERS - Mr. W. Bark, Chairman

Absent, no report

YOUTH - Mr. L. Parker, Jr., Chairman

Absent, no report.

Mr. R. Gundlach was present as a representation from the youth.

BANQUET - Mrs. D. Long, Chairman

Mrs. D. Long advised that the LeFontaine Bleu and Eudowood Gardens were both available for September 29, 1973. After a discussion on the matter, a vote was taken as to which hall and majority present approved Eudowood Gardens.

Mrs. D. Long presented a ceramic church, for approval, which is to be given out as favors at the banquet, one to each family in attendance. A vote was taken and it was unanimously approved authorizing the continuance of production and a check for $25.00 was approved for payment of mold.

DECORATIONS - Mr. L. Parker, Sr., Chairman

Absent, no report

Mr. S. Zinn sat in for Mr. Parker

BUDGET - Mr. E. Jones, Chairman

Mr. Myers informed committee that he received a phone call from Mr. R. Single, advising he would have to resign as Chairman. Mr. Myers accepted his verbal resignation and appointed Mr. E. Jones as his replacement.

Inasmuch as Mr. Jones is Financial Secretary of the Church, it was decided that it was not necessary to open a special checking account for the use of the Anniversary Committee. All money matters to clear thru Mr. Jones.

FUND - Mr. E. Myers, Chairman

Mr. Myers advised that just as soon as he receives a picture from Pastor Rasche, he will forward all pictures off to the plate company for a quotation and proof of finish product.
