Dear Friends:

I am writing to extend my congratulations and very best wishes to the members and friends of United Evangelical Church as you gather to commemorate the 125th anniversary of your congregation's founding.

It is a distinct pleasure for me to acknowledge the faith, perseverance, and dedication which have enabled you to reach this important milestone. For the past 125 years the United Evangelical Church has ably served not only the religious needs of its members, but has demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to the betterment of the entire Baltimore community as well.

You can be proud of the fine work your congregation has done in promoting faith and good citizenship in your community and I am pleased to join with you today as you celebrate this important occasion. I wish you many more years of continued success.

Sincerely,
